JUDGE JAMES C. EVANS

JUDGMENT ENTRY

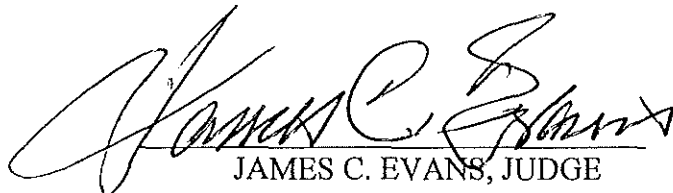

This matter came on to be considered on the Magistrate's Decision filed November 1, 2012.

After review pursuant to Civil Rule 53(E)(4)(a), the Court finds that no written objections have been filed and that no error of law or other defect appears on the face of the Magistrate's Decision.

Therefore, the Magistrate's Decision is hereby adopted and made the action and judgment of this Court as follows: The decision of Ohio Unemployment Compensation Review Commission, dated November 10, 2009, which disallowed further review of the decision of the Hearing Officer that Appellant was terminated for just cause, was not unlawful, unreasonable, or against the manifest weight of the evidence. Therefore, the decision of the Review Commission that Appellant Claimant John P. Kadilak was discharged by Appellant Employer, Youngstown Pipe and Supply, LLC for just cause in connection with work and disallowing his application for unemployment compensation benefits is affirmed.

ALL THIS UNTIL FURTHER ORDER OF THIS COURT.
