RENDERED THIS 29th DAY OF MAY, 2014.

THIS MATTER is before the Court on an administrative appeal by Appellant John A. Beck from the decision of the Unemployment Compensation Review Commission ("Review Commission") denying him unemployment compensation benefits because his discharge would have been for just cause.

This matter has been fully briefed. The Court has reviewed the certified record, briefs of counsel, oral argument by counsel and applicable law.

R.C. 4141.282(H) clearly defines the role of this Court in reviewing an administrative decision: "The court shall hear the appeal on the certified record provided by the commission. If the court finds that the decision of the commission was unlawful, unreasonable, or against the manifest weight of the evidence, it shall reverse, vacate, or modify the decision, or remand the matter to the commission. Otherwise, the court shall affirm the decision of the commission."

The Court has determined that there is ample evidence to support the Hearing Officer's decision and the decision was not unlawful, unreasonable or against the manifest weight of the evidence.

THEREFORE, the Court affirms the Review Commission's decision denying Appellant Beck unemployment compensation benefits.

ENTRY

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the decision of the Unemployment Compensation Review Commission be AFFIRMED. Appellant Beck shall bear all costs in this matter.

SO ORDERED
