Dear Fellow Ohioan:

Almost two years ago, Ohio's new concealed handgun law went into effect and for the first time, Ohioans could apply to their county sheriffs for a license to carry a concealed handgun. Since then, tens of thousands of law-abiding citizens have taken handgun safety courses from certified instructors, applied for, and were issued, licenses to carry a concealed handgun.

As the chief public official charged with implementing the concealed handgun law statewide, my office has undertaken a number of actions pertaining to the concealed carry law.

My office has answered thousands of questions from citizens and from law enforcement about the law, created and maintained publications, a website, and electronic databases required by the statute, processed criminal background checks, and provided in-person and online training and assistance to sheriffs to help them fulfill their obligations under the law.

Since the law took effect, members of my staff formalized reciprocity agreements with 16 other states to allow recognition of those states' CCW licenses in Ohio and to allow Ohioans to carry concealed weapons while outside the State, and developed processes to allow Probate Courts and hospitals to report data regarding persons disqualified from receiving licenses for medical reasons.

My office has also issued advisory opinions concerning the law and defended the against court challenges.

Part of the sheriff's responsibilities under the law is to report to the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission the number of regular and temporary emergency licenses they issued, the number of applications they denied, and how many licenses were suspended or revoked. The Commission is required to compile those statistics and present them to the Governor and the leadership of the Ohio General Assembly.

I am pleased to present this second annual report to the Governor and leadership of the Ohio General Assembly on the activities in Ohio relating to the Ohio Concealed Carry Law.

Very Truly Yours,

Jim Petro
Attorney General

*Ohio's Concealed
Handgun Law
2005 Annual Report*

Executive Summary

Ohio's law to allow citizens to carry concealed handguns went into effect on April 8, 2004.

The law allows citizens with proper firearms safety training to apply with their county sheriff, or a sheriff of an adjacent county, for a license to carry a concealed handgun.

Persons who apply for a license are required to undergo a criminal history background check to ensure that they are not prohibited by law from carrying a concealed handgun. For persons who have lived in Ohio for five years or more, the sheriff submits the applicant's fingerprints electronically to the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation for an in-state criminal background check. Applicants who have lived in Ohio fewer than five years are required to undergo a national check through the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Substitute House Bill 12 of the 125th General Assembly, which allowed citizens to carry concealed weapons, requires county sheriffs to provide statistical information about the licenses they issue to the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission. The Commission, in turn, is required by Ohio Revised Code Chapter 109.731 to compile those statistics and report them to the Governor and the leadership of the General Assembly each year. This document is the second such report under Ohio's new law.

Licenses Issued

For calendar year 2005 — the first full year the law was in effect — Ohio sheriffs issued 22,487 regular licenses to carry concealed handguns. The sheriffs issued 76 temporary emergency licenses, which allow a person who submits evidence of imminent danger to receive a non-renewable 90-day license to carry a concealed handgun. That figure is 11 higher than the number issued in 2004. Along with the 45,497 licenses issued in 2004, as of December 31, 2005 67,984 Ohioans had been issued licenses to carry a concealed handgun.

Licenses Suspended or Revoked

Under R.C. 2923.128 sheriffs must immediately suspend a concealed handgun license upon notification that the licensee has been arrested or charged with certain offenses, or if the licensee is the subject of a protection order issued by a court. In 2005, sheriffs suspended 219 concealed handgun licenses. It is important to note that some of these licenses had been issued in 2004, which means that there were approximately 50 percent more licensees subject to the terms of R.C. 2923.128. For 2005, sheriffs revoked or suspended 5 temporary emergency licenses.

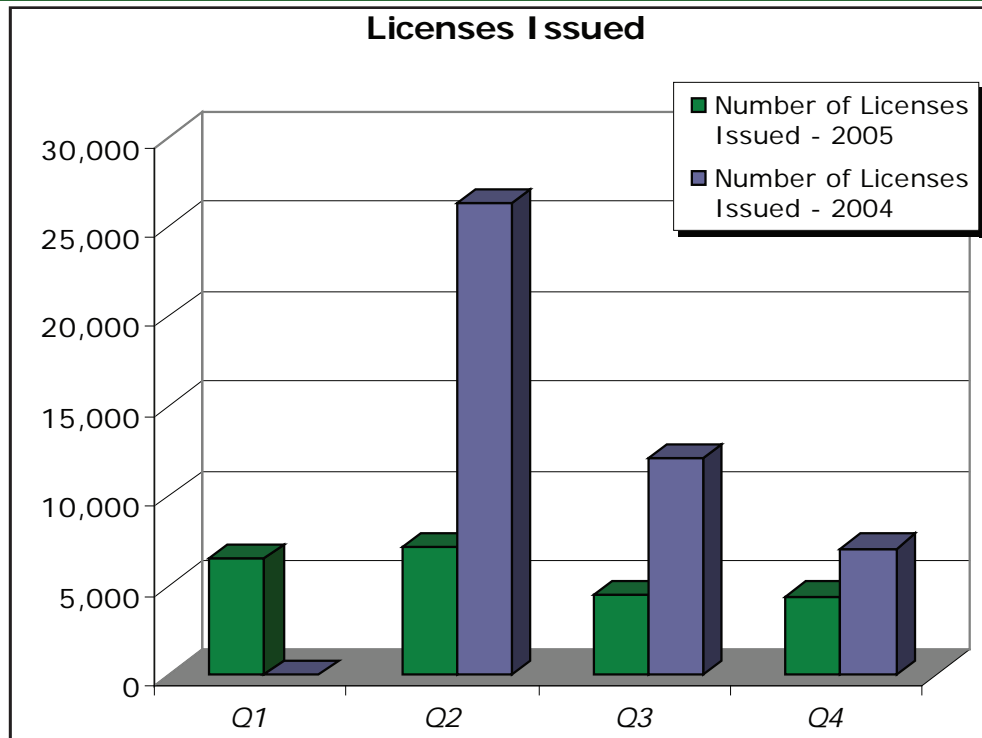

That same section of the Ohio Revised Code also requires sheriffs to revoke the license of any person who no longer meets the eligibility requirements to carry a concealed handgun. In 2005, 75 regular licenses were revoked because the licensee was no longer eligible to hold a concealed carry license. The reasons for revocation vary from the death of the licensee to no longer being a resident of Ohio to a disqualifying criminal conviction to becoming subject to the law's restrictions on mentally ill person or persons considered drug or alcohol dependent. Sheriffs are not required by the law to report the specific reason for the revocation to the Peace Officers Training Commission.

In the previous year, 78 licenses were suspended by Ohio sheriffs under the law. In 2004, Ohio sheriffs revoked 42 regular licenses and 4 temporary emergency licenses.

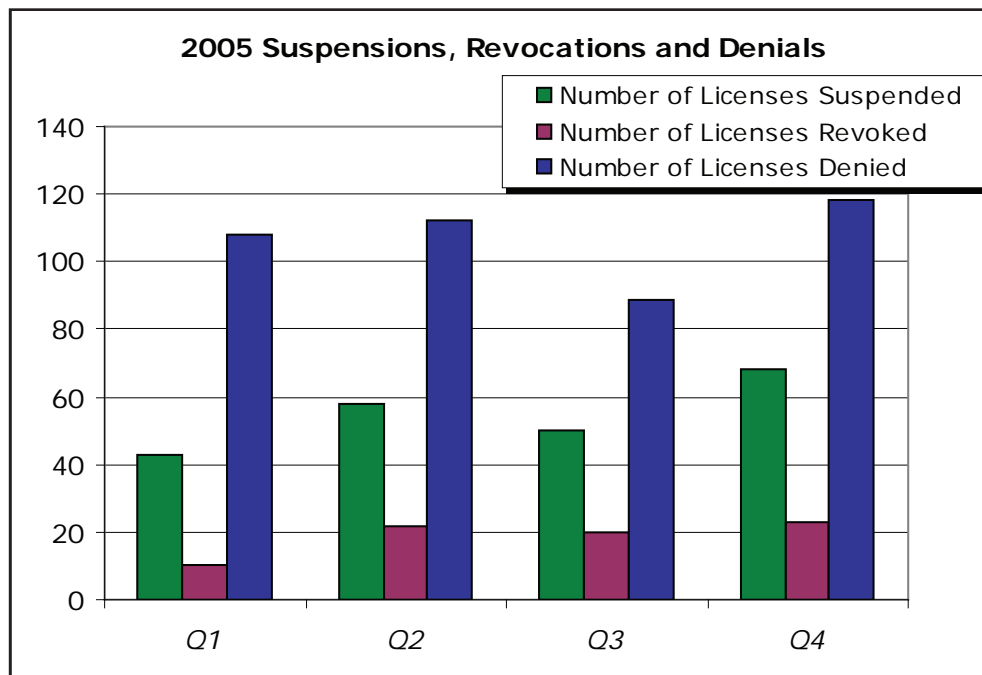

Applications Denied

The law requires that sheriffs shall deny an application by any person who fails to meet the eligibility criteria specified in R.C. 2923.125 for regular licenses, or R.C. 2923.1213 for temporary emergency licenses. In 2005, sheriffs denied 427 applications for regular licenses (9 fewer denials than in 2004) and 3 applications for temporary emergency licenses.

Reciprocity Agreements

States that honor Ohio CCW licenses

Please visit Attorney General Jim Petro's Website at www.ag.state.oh.us for the most up-to-date list of states with reciprocal agreements.

Ohio licensees should check with their destination states about local laws before carrying a concealed handgun outside of Ohio.

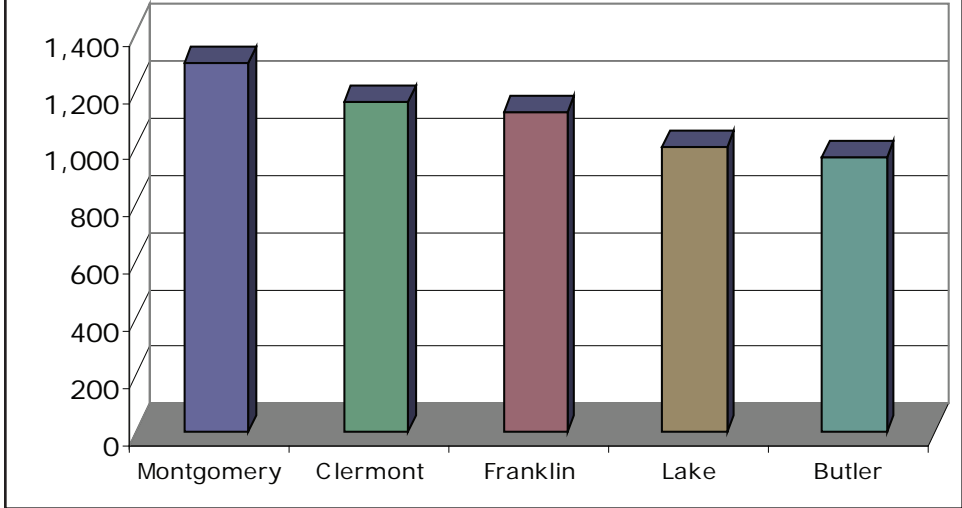

Reciprocity Agreements

The law requires the Ohio Attorney General to craft reciprocity agreements with other states to allow Ohioans with permits to carry weapons in those jurisdictions and for those states' citizens to carry weapons in Ohio. These agreements require an analysis of those other laws to ensure they meet the requirements of Ohio's concealed weapons law and vice versa (ORC 109.69). Please visit the Attorney General's web site at <http://www.ag.state.oh.us> for the most recent list of states.

As of the publication of this report, Ohio has reciprocity agreements in place with the following states.

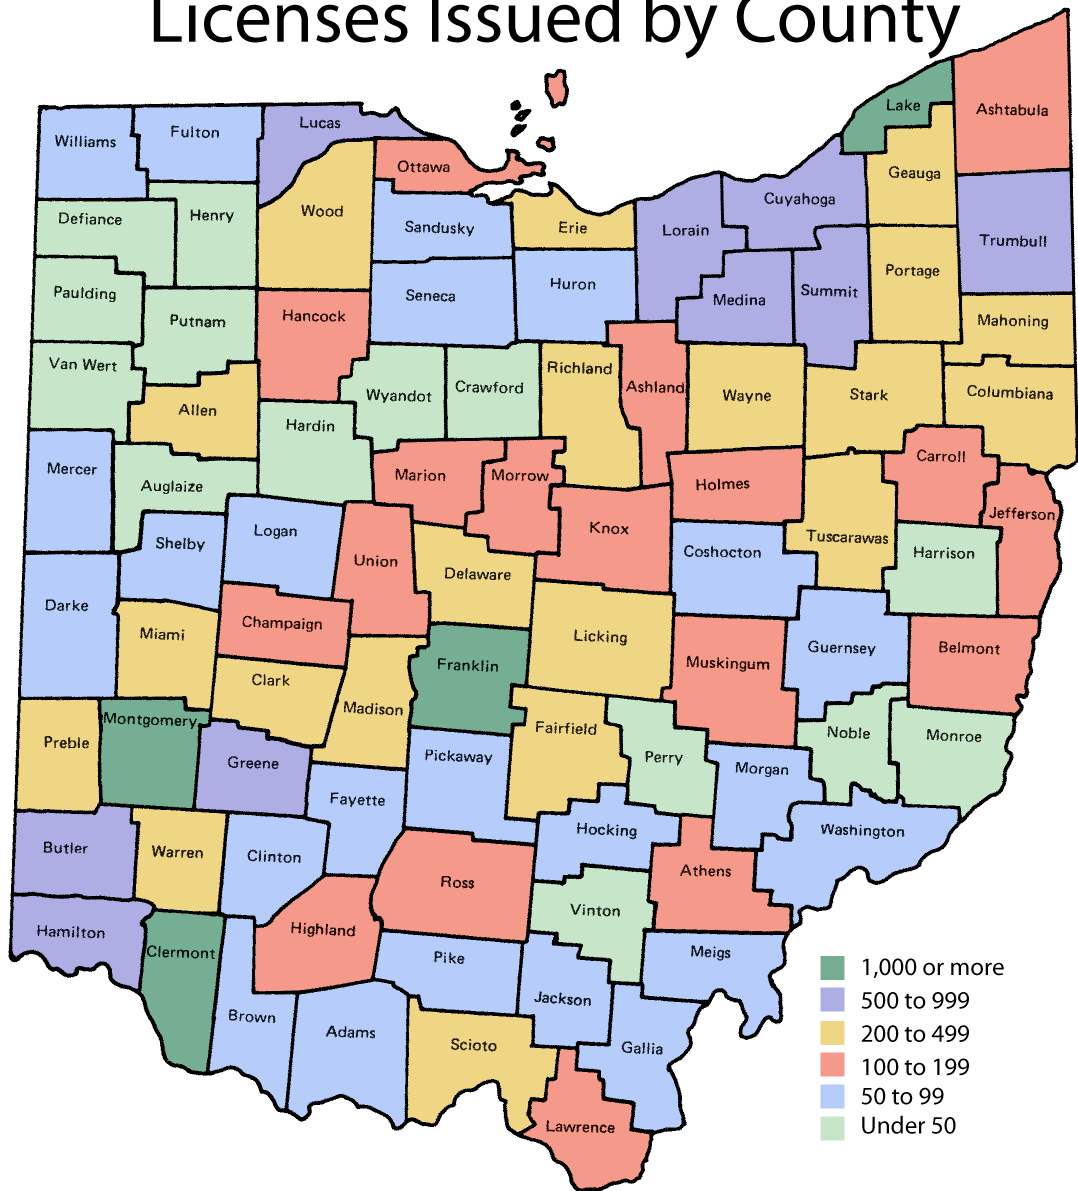

Alaska	North Carolina
Arizona	Oklahoma
Delaware	South Carolina
Florida	Tennessee
Idaho	Utah

Michigan	Washington
