APPROVAL, TRANSCRIPT COVERING PROPOSED SALE TO VILLAGE OF FRAZEYSBURG, MUSKINGUM COUNTY, OHIO, STRIP OF ABANDONED OHIO CANAL LAND IN SAID VILLAGE.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, October 13, 1921.

Department of Highways and Public Works, Division of Public Works, Columbus, Ohio.

GENTLEMEN:—The letter of your department dated October 5, 1921, is received, transmitting in duplicate the transcript of the proceedings of your department relative to a proposed sale to the village of Frazeyburg, Muskingum county, Ohio, of a strip of abandoned Ohio canal land in said village, said strip containing 8.3 acres more or less. It is noted that the appraisement of the land is $500.00.

I have carefully examined the transcript and find that it shows that the proceedings of your department in the matter have been had in conformity to law. I therefore approve said proceedings and join in the resolution for the sale of the strip.

I return the duplicate transcript herewith, having signed the duplicate resolutions forming part of the same.

Respectfully,
JOHN G. PRICE,
Attorney-General.
