Maybe I'll destroy something that you can't live without. Like your mini van.

I don't really like herion. I prefer meth but when they act like they can't get your cuff out and they got a black pen looking thing. They are really pumping your bloodstream full or high grade herion.

They allowed me to leave the hospital the same day I did horrible things to Chris. They knew I had threatened people but they allowed me to leave anyway. They knew my status.

The doctor that gave me surgery on my left hand was fine asf. Big ass tits. Thin, blonde, nice ass. She was honestly a perfect 10. I was high on meth at the hospital. So I didn't flirt with her at all. But God damn. She was so intelligent and fine.
