

all encumbrances except the taxes on the property for the year 1934, above referred to; and that with respect to such taxes an application is to be made by you on behalf of the Conservation Council to the Tax Commission of Ohio for an order transferring these lands to the tax exempt list under the authority conferred upon the Tax Commission of Ohio by the provisions of section 3570-1 and 5616 of the General Code of Ohio. The lien of the taxes above referred to on the property here in question is in legal contemplation the lien of the State itself. And, in this view, this lien on the acquisition of the property by the state of Ohio will merge and become lost in the larger fee simple title in and by which the State will then own and hold the property. However, in order that the county auditor may be enabled to transfer this and other properties acquired by the State from the Pymatuning Land Company, to the tax exempt list in his office authorized and provided for in section 5570-1, General Code, it is suggested that upon the delivery and acceptance of the deed of the Pymatuning Land Company conveying these properties to the State, an application should be made immediately for an order of the Tax Commission exempting these properties from taxation under the authority of the sections of the General Code above referred to.

Inasmuch as the conveyance of this property by the Pymatuning Land Company to the state of Ohio for the purposes indicated is in fact a gift of this property to the State for said purposes, no contract encumbrance record or Controlling Board certificate is required as a condition precedent to the right and authority of the Conservation Council to accept this conveyance on behalf of the state of Ohio.

Upon the considerations above noted, the title of the Pymatuning Land Company to this tract of land is approved and the abstract of title to the same is herewith returned to the end that the same, together with the deed executed by the Pymatuning Land Company conveying this property to the State, may on acceptance of such deed by the Conservation Council, be filed with the Auditor of State in the manner provided by law.

Respectfully,
JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.
