

the property owners as I have indicated to be necessary in the case of the establishment of a new or the changing of an existing road.

In stating my conclusions as aforesaid, I agree with you that Section 1189, supra, is in many ways defective, especially in not making more specific provision as to the persons to whom notice should be mailed and providing the time in which an appeal should be effected and the procedure for such an appeal.

As we learn the defects of this law from experience, these matters should be properly presented to the next Legislature for correction.

Respectfully,
EDWARD C. TURNER,
Attorney General.
