TITLE

Vaccine and Gene Therapy Choice and Anti-Discrimination Act

SUMMARY

This act would enact Section 3792.02 of the Ohio Revised Code (O.R.C.) to protect the privacy and freedom of Ohioans in their ability to abstain from vaccination or gene therapy without unlawful discrimination by (1) prohibiting the state, county, or local establishment of a vaccination or gene therapy passport system, registry, or requirement; (2) providing increased transparency and reinforcement of existing laws proscribing public school vaccination exemptions and privacy for staff and students; (3) protecting businesses and employers from liability for their compliance honoring vaccination or gene therapy choice; (4) protecting employees from discrimination concerning their vaccination or gene therapy status; (5) statute remains in effect even during a state of emergency and (6) provides cause of action for individuals who have faced violations of the protections herein.

More specifically, this enactment would include, but is not limited to, the following provisions:

- ▶ Increases protections against coercion or penalty in the healthcare decisions of the individuals with informed consent, as well as any child, family, or person for whom the individual stands in loco parentis by:

This prohibition provides exceptions for O.R.C. §§ 3313.671 and 5104.014, as concerns Chicken pox, Diphtheria, Hemophilus influenzae type b, Hepatitis A, Hepatitis B, Influenza, Measles, Mumps, Pertussis, Pneumococcal disease, Poliomyelitis, Rotavirus, Rubella, and Tetanus.

 - Requiring notice be provided to all children and parents or legal guardians as to any immunization requirement as well as all applicable exemptions for any child day-care center pursuant to section 5104.014.
- ▶ Increases personal privacy protection over individual personal health information—making exceptions for personally identifiable information under O.R.C. §§ 3313.671, 5104.014 and protected health information for the purposes of patient care, treatment, or billing under O.R.C. § 3798.01—but still otherwise prohibiting:

 - Treating an individual differently from others in determining whether that individual satisfies any admission, enrollment, quota, eligibility, membership, or other requirement or condition that individuals are required to meet in order to be provided any disposition, service, financial aid, or benefit available;
