DISAPPROVAL—ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE SOCIETA
MARIA SS. DEL CARMINE.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, July 5, 1934.

HON. GEORGE S. MYERS, Secretary of State, Columbus, Ohio.

DEAR SIR:—I acknowledge receipt of proposed articles of incorporation of Societa Maria SS. Del Carmine.

This corporation is proposed to be organized as a corporation not for profit, under the general corporation act of Ohio.

Since the articles provide for the payment of death benefits to its deceased members, and since I do not find that the society comes within any of the exemptions contained in Section 9491 of the General Code, I am of the opinion that it will be necessary to comply with the laws of Ohio governing the incorporation of insurance companies. I am, therefore, returning the articles of incorporation, together with the constitution and by-laws, without my approval.

Respectfully,
JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.

DISAPPROVAL, BONDS OF SALINEVILLE VILLAGE, COLUMBIANA
COUNTY, OHIO—$6,000.00.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, July 5, 1934.

Retirement Board, State Teachers Retirement System, Columbus, Ohio.

GENTLEMEN:—Re: Bonds of Salineville Village, Columbiana County, Ohio, $6,000.00.

I have examined the transcript of the proceedings relating to the above bond issue. The transcript shows that the fiscal officer of the Village certified the estimated life of the improvement for which these bonds were issued to be in excess of five years, as required by Section 2293-2, General Code, but it does not show that he certified the maximum maturity of such bonds, as required by Section 2293-10, General Code. It is, of course, necessary that this be done before the passage of the bond resolution.

The transcript also shows that the resolutions were passed without their being read on three different days or without the rules being suspended, as required by Section 4224, General Code. Furthermore, the transcript does not show that any of the resolutions were published, as required by Section 4228, General Code.

It is, therefore, my advice that you do not purchase these bonds.

Respectfully,

JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.
