A piece of white fabric, possibly a shirt, is laid out on a light-colored surface. A prominent, dark red bloodstain is visible on the left side of the fabric. A ruler is placed horizontally next to the bloodstain for scale. The ruler has markings in inches and centimeters. The number '23-3406' is printed on the ruler, oriented vertically. The fabric shows some wrinkling and other smaller, less distinct stains.

A white t-shirt is laid flat on a light-colored surface. A large, irregular red stain is visible on the right side of the shirt. A ruler is placed horizontally below the stain for scale. A small white label with black text is attached to the bottom edge of the shirt, near the ruler. The label contains the number '23-3406' and some smaller, less legible text.
