Officer Involved Critical Incident - 1822 Sherrick Road SE,
Canton, OH 44707

Investigative Activity: Conversation with constituent Jerry
Involves: Jerry (O)
Activity Date: 05/16/2024
Activity Location: Telephone
Authoring Agent: SA Jon Lieber #50

Narrative:

On May 16, 2024, at 0914 hours, the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) London, Ohio office received a voice message from a constituent named Jerry, last name unknown. In his message, Jerry stated that he just saw the video where Frank Tyson (Tyson) was murdered by two Canton Police Officers. Jerry asked why the officers were not charged with murder, why were the officers not held accountable, and why were the officers on a paid vacation. Jerry said that he would like answers. Jerry said that it is plain as day on the video and that there is not a whole lot of investigation that needs to be done. Jerry said that the investigation should be done in 24 to 48 hours. Jerry left his return telephone number as [REDACTED]

On May 16, 2024, at 1351 hours, SA Lieber called Jerry at the telephone number listed above. Jerry asked if the officers have been charged. SA Lieber informed Jerry that the officers have not been charged. Jerry said that it was very bad what he saw on the video. He said that people are sitting around laughing and talking while Tyson is dying on the floor. Jerry said that Tyson was murdered just like George Floyd and the officers need to be held accountable.

SA Lieber explained BCI's process of investigating police use-of-force cases and the general timeframe of the investigations.
