APPROVAL, LEASE OF ATHENS STATE HOSPITAL LANDS FOR OIL AND GAS TO FRANK R. GROSS AND JAMES GINNAN.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, November 4, 1925.

HON. JOHN E. HARPER, Director of Public Welfare, Columbus, Ohio.

DEAR SIR:—In Opinion No. 2887, rendered October 21, 1925, and directed to you, a form of lease was enclosed to cover the leasing of the Athens State Hospital lands for oil and gas to Frank R. Gross and James Ginnan.

In said opinion you were requested to carefully examine the substance of said lease. Under date of November 2, 1925, in your communication, you suggest the following be inserted in the form of lease submitted:

"However, should said second party cease to operate said premises or abandon the same, then this lease is to become null and void, excepting and reserving the right of the second party to remove from said premises all of his property.

"Should any of said development produce oil or gas in paying quantities, then the lessee agrees to continue to develop and operate said premises or forfeit all of said remaining acreage so undeveloped except ten (10) acres around each well already drilled."

In accordance with your suggestion the form has been amended to include the clauses which you suggest, and is returned herewith with my approval as to form endorsed thereon.

Respectfully,
C. C. CRABBE,
Attorney General.
