[REDACTED] Howland Township, OH 44484 Trumbull County

Approximately 14 minutes and 6 seconds into the footage, Officer McDaniels broadcasted over the P.A. system, "Randall Fife, come out of the house with your hands up."

Approximately 15 minutes and 46 seconds into the footage, after dispatch provides officers with Fife's phone number, Officer McDaniels calls Fife. Approximately 16 minutes into the footage, Fife answers Officer McDaniels' phone call.

Fife: Hello

Officer McDaniels: Hey Randall

Fife: Hello

Officer McDaniels: Hey Randall, it's the police department.

Fife: What?

Officer McDaniels: It's the police department, Randall.

Fife: What do you want?

Officer McDaniels: What's going on in there?

Fife: I think you know what's going on in here, man.

Officer McDaniels: Okay, are you doing okay Randall?

Fife: Yeah, no, I'm doing good.

Officer McDaniels: Tell me what's happening inside the house.

At approximately 16 minutes and 29 seconds into the footage, Fife hangs up the phone.

Approximately 19 minutes and 26 seconds into the footage, Officer McDaniels is heard saying, "Back of the house. Hey, there is yelling at the back of the house."

Approximately 19 minutes and 48 seconds into the footage, dispatch asks Officer Brancaccio if he wants CRT (Crisis response team) activated. Officer Brancaccio responded, "Affirm."

Approximately 20 minutes and 31 seconds into the footage, an officer asked Officer McDaniels what led up to this incident. Officer McDaniels responded, "Randall Fife has mental issues, [REDACTED] and his brother's girlfriend called in and said that he has a shotgun and basically holding everybody hostage and."

Officer McDaniels also explained, "When we got here, Niko (Officer Brancaccio) and I approached the house, behind that tree and car and could see him walk past with what looked like a shotgun in his hands and he turned off lights and closed curtains."

Approximately 21 minutes and 10 seconds into the footage, Officer McDaniels stated, "I guess there is more than a shotgun in the house. There's another, I guess there's a couple handguns and shotguns, and I know he likes knives, so, I'm not really worried about the knives at this point."

Approximately 21 minutes and 40 seconds into the footage, dispatch asks Officer Brancaccio if he wanted to try to have "mom and little brother" who were barricaded in the first-floor bedroom to try and escape through a window. Officer Brancaccio replied, "Negative, we don't know where Randall is out, so we can't tell them where they can get out and be safe at. He shut the blinds on use, we have no sight lines."

Approximately 22 minutes and 27 seconds into the footage, Officer McDaniels stated, "What we do know, he will definitely pull the trigger."

Approximately 25 minutes and 11 seconds into the footage, Officer McDaniels broadcasted over the P.A. system, "Randall Fife, it's the police department. Come out with your hands up." Moments later, Officer McDaniels broadcasted over the P.A. system, "Mr. Fife, it's the police department. Come out with your hands up."

Approximately 27 minutes and 51 seconds into the footage, it appears that a Mahoning Valley Regional Crisis Team (MVRCT) member arrives on scene. Officer McDaniels explains, "We got a call, it's a mental family, Randall Fife's his name. There was an argument, he has a shotgun, he's having a [REDACTED] moment. Got two people barricaded upstairs under a bed. Two people barricaded downstairs. I believe there's other firearms in the house. There's mention of a handgun. I've tried to call him on the phone. So, when we arrived, we came up to this tree and this SUV, he walked by with what looked like a shotgun in his hands, closed the curtain, shut off the lights. I tried to call him on the phone, and he said, 'I think you know what's going on' and hung up on me."
