

of its passage, and until the expiration of that period there was no authority in the village council to pass the ordinance to proceed with said improvement.

(2) The notices of the passage of the resolution of necessity were served on June 3, whereas it appears from the transcript that the ordinance to proceed with the improvement was passed June 7. By the express terms of section 3824 G. C. council was without authority to pass said ordinance to proceed until after the expiration of two weeks following the date of the service of such notices.

For the reasons stated I advise that you decline to accept the bonds.

Respectfully,

JOHN G. PRICE,

Attorney-General.

2474.

DISAPPROVAL, BONDS OF VILLAGE OF AMHERST IN AMOUNT OF $11,117 FOR STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, October 17, 1921.

Department of Industrial Relations, Industrial Commission of Ohio, Columbus, Ohio.

Re: Bonds of the village of Amherst in the amount of $11,117.00 issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments for the improvement of Main street.

GENTLEMEN:—I have examined the transcript for the above bond issue and decline to approve the validity of said bond issue for the following reasons:

(1) The transcript discloses that the resolution of necessity was adopted May 24, 1921. Under the provisions of sections 4227-2 and 4227-3 G. C. said resolution of necessity did not go into effect until thirty days after the date of its passage, and until the expiration of that period there was no authority in the village council to pass the ordinance to proceed with said improvement.

(2) The notices of the passage of the resolution of necessity were served on June 3, whereas it appears from the transcript that the ordinance to proceed with the improvement was passed June 7. By the express terms of section 3824 G. C. council was without authority to pass said ordinance to proceed until after the expiration of two weeks following the date of the service of such notices.

For the reasons stated I advise that you decline to accept the bonds.

Respectfully,

JOHN G. PRICE,

Attorney-General.