

An examination has also been made of the deed that has been submitted, and it is noted that the granting clause of said deed contains the following reservation:

“Saving and reserving unto myself the buildings on the said lots, the same to be moved immediately.”

It is believed that said deed is sufficient when properly delivered to convey the interests of the grantor to the State of Ohio, with the exception of the reservation above set forth.

The abstracts and deed are being returned herewith.

In the event that you accept the conveyance the deed should be recorded in Adams County and then filed with the Auditor of State.

Respectfully,
JOHN G. PRICE,
Attorney-General.
