Upon being asked what happened by Stark County Sheriff's Office (SCSO) Deputy (Dep.) Chad Carnahan (Carnahan) Burch responds [15:32] that the male (Frank Tyson) wrecked into a telephone pole on Sherrick. Before officers arrived, the male ran into the Amvets. Burch said that he and Officer Schoenegge were fighting with the male. They got the male on the ground and in handcuffs. Burch said that he then went and got his cruiser. When Burch came back into the Amvets, the male "was a little in and out of it" [15:51], so Burch called for medics. Burch said that he is not sure how quickly the male passed out after he left to get his cruiser. Burch said that when he returned from getting his cruiser the male "was quiet" [16:09].

Burch re-entered the Amvets. CFD and CPD personnel can be seen tending to Tyson. Screenshot taken at 16:23.

At 16:36, a CFD firefighter/medic asked what happened. Burch responded that they were fighting with him (Tyson). Burch said that Tyson got into a wreck and hit a telephone pole on Sherrick. Tyson ran and when Burch arrived on scene a neighbor told him that Tyson ran into the Amvets. When he and Schoenegge arrived at the Amvets, Tyson yelled at them. Officers fought with Tyson. Ultimately, they got Tyson on the ground. The medic asked if Tyson just dropped or if they hit him. Burch responds "No, no, we, we tripped him on the ground. He was still yelling" [17:32]. Officer Beau Schoenegge (Schoenegge) then said "Swept his legs underneath, we picked him up, laid him on the ground, and then" [17:36]. The medic asked, "Face first or face down or face up?" Burch responds "Face down" [17:43]. Schoenegge said "He wa, he was sideways when we got him on his stomach" [17:45].

Amvets location, 1822 Sherrick Road SE, is in the jurisdiction of the Stark County Sheriff's Office. Burch then said that the crash is what they got called out there for originally. Burch said that when they arrived, a neighbor that lives by the broken utility pole said that the male ran to the Amvets and was "acting crazy inside" [19:55].

At 21:55, Burch said to Schoenegge "He was on something, he was fucking strong. He was not, he was not bending at all." Schoenegge said "Did he have, did he have, was he holding on to the counter cause I swept one leg, he wasn't going, then I got both and he was still" [22:00]. Burch said "I didn't pin up against the counter because, I decided to uh" [22:06]. Burch stops talking as Tyson is being brought out of the Amvets on a gurney.

At 25:24, Burch asks Richard Wiseman (Wiseman) if the Amvets door was propped open. Wiseman says that it was not and that someone buzzed him (Tyson) in because they thought he was getting a to-go order. Wiseman said "I tried to get him out but he wasn't having no part of it" [25:49].

At 26:05, Burch said that he was going to find his sergeant and he walked away from Wiseman. Burch walked to the area where the utility pole was broken. A CPD officer told Burch, Schoenegge, as well as several other officers to gather as much information as they could and to keep the road blocked off. Burch then walked over to Tyson's vehicle and shined his flashlight inside. See screenshot below taken at 29:51.
