

poration of Centro Espanol Americano. The purpose of this corporation is set forth as follows:

“To encourage and further the social and intellectual development of members and their families; and during periods of illness and/or distress to render aid exclusively to members.”

This purpose would include health and accident insurance and there is nothing in the articles which would exempt it from a compliance with the insurance laws of this state.

I am therefore returning the same to you without my approval.

Respectfully,

JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.
