Narrative:

On Thursday, August 28, 2025, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Special Agent (SA) Allison Fletcher (Fletcher) conducted an additional examination of Matrix Item 20 which was identified as a backpack. The item was recovered from the vehicle driven by the involved subject, Marcus Smith (Smith). The backpack was believed to have belonged to Smith based upon identifying documentation previously located inside the bag.

Matrix Item 20 was previously examined and photographed by SA Lurna McClintock on February 19, 2025. The item was packaged and placed into evidence.

SA Fletcher was contacted by Smith's mother, Beverly Ivory (Ivory), who inquired about the location of her son's car keys (Toyota Camry). According to the documentation previously conducted by SA McClintock, there were no keys located inside the backpack.

A secondary examination was conducted by SA Fletcher where the backpack was removed from the packaging, searched and repackaged. No keys were located inside the bag. After repacking, the item was placed back in evidence.

There are no keys that have been previously submitted to evidence.

Ivory was notified of the search results. Photographs were taken of the item in its original packaging, after the removal of packaging, and with the new packaging. The photographs have been saved to Axon Justice as Item 20 - backpack - repackaging.
