Defines chiropractic as the science of palpating and adjusting by hand the articulations of the spinal column and other incidental adjustments according to chiropractic methods. Provides for examination by board ; for examination fees and for license to practice ; prescribes license fee and an annual renewal fee, licenses to be filed with county officers. Licenses may be revoked for violation of the provisions of this act or for want of good moral character, or if licensee addicted to use narcotic drugs or guilty of deception and fraud. Provides for an appeal to courts when license revoked, treasurer of board to pay to state treasurer all sums belonging to board after board meetings, the state treasurer to keep same in separate fund for expenses and per diem of members. Prescribes penalty of fine and imprisonment for violation and repeals all acts or parts of acts in conflict with its provisions.”
