Activity Date: February 7, 2024
Activity Location: Grant Medical Center - 111 South Grant Avenue, Columbus,
OH 43215 (Scene 2)
Authoring Agent: Special Agent Aja Chung, #86

On Wednesday, February 7th, 2024, the Columbus Police Department (CPD) requested the assistance of the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Crime Scene Unit (CSU) and Special Investigations Unit (SIU) with an officer involved critical incident with one injured officer. BCI personnel were advised the injured CPD officer was transported to Grant Medical Center located at 111 S. Grant Ave. At the direction of Crime Scene Technician (CST) Amy Gill, Special Agent (S/A) Aja Chung responded to Grant Medical Center to collect the clothing and any pertinent items regarding the investigation.

S/A Chung arrived at Grant Medical Center at approximately 1755 hours and made contact with CPD Officer Husband, near room 48. It was confirmed CPD [REDACTED] [REDACTED] s pistol was still at the main scene (Huntley Road and East Dublin-Granville Road/State Route 161). S/A Chung received two plastic bags that contained CPD [REDACTED] [REDACTED] s clothing. S/A Chung photographed and repackaged the items as follows:

- Item 1: Smith and Wesson magazine (capacity of 17) with five (5) cartridges.
- Item 2: Blue battle dress uniform (BDU) style pants, black undershirt, underwear, pair of socks, pair of Nike Boots, Velcro belt, one belt keeper, a jacket with CPD insignia and [REDACTED] and original hospital packaging.

The pants, undershirt, underwear, and jacket were cut away from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] s body to render aid.

At 1810 hours, S/A Chung completed her task at Grant Medical Center and responded to the main scene.

The two items collected were turned over to BCI CST Gill at 2130 hours.
