On Thursday May 2, 2024, Special Agent (SA) Tiffany Najmulski (Najmulski) reviewed social media posts and news coverage in an attempt to identify possible witnesses and information helpful to the case. The following is a summary of information SA Najmulski found to be of interest.

WJER radio post – Wayne Webber commented that he could give the radio station a story that has not been seen on tv. Webber said he had already reported it to the police. Anna Fisher commented she has outdoor cameras that captured it all.

News 5 article – Neighbor, Kirk Norris, checked on his neighbor who had the vehicle in their house while Norris' nephew and "others" chased the suspect into the alley. Neighbor, Tina Smith, heard a large crash.

WKYC Channel 3 news clip – In the comment section @izzy said she saw "it" happen and thought the guy was drunk. She has pictures of the crash. @rossauce12 said he knew the guy and he was an awesome dude.

WKYC news clip – Cindy Abel heard squealing and a crash into her neighbor's house. She said a pickup truck went in the side of the house and a kid jumped out of the vehicle and ran between 2 houses.

Ohio Guardian Facebook post– Posted pictures of the scene afterwards.

19 News – Neighbor, Kirk Norris, said the man in the truck tried to reverse then got out and went to the passenger side of the police car and a struggle ensued. Kirk said the deputy gave the man fair warning, numerous times, to get out of the vehicle and warned he was going to shoot the man. Kirk heard 3 shots fired and then the "car" took off. Kirk said it was pretty chaotic and he did not if the sheriff was chasing the man or what happened. Kirk said he then saw the deputy laying in the road. Kirk said he ran to the deputy's aid and saw he had been shot and the deputy said he shot himself in the finger.

I watched the whole thing , you took a picture of my house it wasn't pleasant to see the man stole the sheriffs car and hit my neighbors house and there was two other cars involved but idk how many people I don't think the man made it because they were doing chest compressions for like ten minutes after they pulled him out of the sheriffs car

Margaret Morris very much so yes . He stole the sheriff's car , I do believe he had died due to the incident though . I watched the whole thing it was very unpleasant to see . I couldn't imagine what he was being pulled over for was worth all what he caused as well as his life being taken at his expense but my kids were terrified. I locked my doors because I had no idea if it was someone on the loose or what until I saw the Phila cop pull him out of the cop car and rip his shirt off and start compressions

We are gathering information, but so far the sheriff says a suspect was killed and a deputy injured. He is not sure at this time what caused the suspect's death - gunfire, a car crash or something else. He referred questions about the cause and manner of death to the coroner.

Wayne Webber you don't live on 8th, I know because I do, never seen you before, and I have lived here for years. If you have a story, rather than gossip about it to whomever will listen, how about you call the Sheriff's Office and share it with them. My outdoor camera tells it all, but seeing as how it's an ongoing investigation, any information you have should probably not be made Facebook Famous!!

I pulled up to the cop he gave me instructions on how to get around that. But they allowed a semi driver go thru (I understand that). As I came up to the stop sign at the Pris table. They let a car go thru the crash site.

'Confusing scene': Man involved in police shooting dies after stealing sheriff's office cruiser, crashing it

The Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation is looking into a police shooting involving a Tuscarawas County Sheriff's Office deputy and a turbulent series of events that left a man dead Sunday night.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio — The Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation is investigating a police shooting involving a Tuscarawas County Sheriff's Office deputy and a turbulent series of events that left a man dead Sunday night.

According to the sheriff's office, deputies responded to 8th Street Northeast and Fair Avenue in New Philadelphia after someone called 911 regarding a car that crashed into a house.

Neighbors told News 5 they heard squealing tires and a loud boom when the pickup truck barreled into the home.

"I scanned around and seen the truck parked in the neighbor's house, ran down the steps, come outside and the suspect was trying to back out of the house," said Kirk Norris, who lives down the street.

He said when it became apparent the truck was stuck, the suspect got out and ran. Norris' nephew and others chased him between houses and into an alley.

Meanwhile, Norris said he rushed into the house to make sure no one was injured. A Tuscarawas County Sheriff's deputy was arriving when the neighbor inside the home said he was uninjured.

Upon arriving, a deputy located a man walking nearby. When the deputy got out of the cruiser to speak with the man, the man jumped inside the police vehicle's passenger door, authorities said.

 "The suspect came running out of the alley, jumped into the passenger side of the sheriff's car," Norris recalled. "There was a struggle to get him out of the car. The deputy fired 3 shots and then the car sped off." 1 weather alerts Watch Now

The sheriff's office confirms shots were fired, and the deputy was hurt in the hand and leg. It's unclear from the information provided how exactly the deputy was injured during the struggle, but Norris said he and others rushed to help.

"I offered my shirt for his wound because he said he shot himself in the finger and he was bleeding," he said.

Investigators said the suspect sped off in the cruiser only to crash into a parked car near Tell Street and East High Avenue.

Neighbors there said the noise startled them.

"It was a loud [crash]. It shook the whole house. So I knew something had to have happened," said Tina Smith.

ADVERTISEMENT

Smith pointed out her neighbor's damaged front porch where she said the parked car flipped after impact. She said the cruiser bounced off the car, nearly crashing into the house across the street.

The man was extricated from the cruiser and taken to a nearby hospital, where he later died. The sheriff's office said it's unclear if the man died from a gunshot wound or injuries sustained in either of the crashes.

"This was an extremely confusing scene that encompassed three crime scenes," Sheriff Orvis Campbell said, referring to the initial scene where a car crashed into a house, the second scene where the shooting occurred and the third being where the cruiser crashed into the vehicle. "Details are sketchy at this time."

Neighbors said they're grateful others in the neighborhood were safe.

"We're pretty fortunate," said Smith. "We're glad no one else got hurt."

Norris added, "I'm glad there was no family sitting in their living room watching TV with kids or anything... it could've been worse."

Sheriff Campbell asked Ohio BCI to investigate the matter because it involved a sheriff's deputy. Members of the New Philadelphia Police Department and the Tuscarawas County Coroner's Office also contributed to the initial investigation.

The sheriff said he will release more information as it becomes available.
