

Said deed recites that the premises are conveyed to the State of Ohio for military purposes, and whenever said premises shall cease to be used for military purposes, then the title to said premises shall immediately revert to the grantor, its successors and assigns, and all rights of the grantee shall thereupon cease and determine.

Finding said copy of the proposed deed in proper legal form, I hereby approve the same and return the same to you herewith.

Respectfully,
EDWARD C. TURNER,
Attorney General.
