Activity Location: Ashtabula County Sheriff's Office - 25 West Jefferson

Authoring Agent: SA Joseph Lamping #184

Narrative:

On Monday, September 22, 2025, at approximately 0900 hours, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Special Agent (SA) Joe Lamping (SA Lamping) met with Ashtabula County Sheriff's Office (ACSO) Chief Deputy Terry Moisio (Chief Deputy Moisio) at the ACSO. Chief Deputy Moisio provided SA Lamping with Jerry Pegram's (Pegram) full jail records which consisted of several hundred pages of assorted documents. The documents were collected, scanned, and uploaded to Matrix. Each file was attached to this investigative report. SA Lamping reviewed the content of the records and noted the following:

The records contained data from the ACSO jail division involving Pegram's incarceration at the jail facility. These records included court documents, intake paperwork, documentation of personal property, documentation of Pegram's tattoos, medical intake questionnaires, jail correspondence, release paperwork, write ups, commendations, and other records. The information from the booking sheets was duplicative of the information gathered during the BCI Criminal Intelligence Unit's review of Pegram's criminal history, which is documented in the report titled Prior Law Enforcement Contacts, CCH, and Intel Information Review.

PEGRAM, under warrant heretofore issued on an indictment charging one (1) count of "Failure to Comply with Order or signal of Police Officer", in violation of Ohio Revised Code §2921.331.

JUDGMENT ENTRY

This cause came on for Preliminary Hearing on March 31, 2008, on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls filed against the defendant, Jerry C. Pegram. The State of Ohio was present and represented by Chief Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Harold Specht Jr. and Brett Kiser of the Adult Parole Authority. The defendant, Jerry C. Pegram, was present in the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department and accompanied by Attorney Dean Topalof who appeared on behalf of defense counsel. With the consent of the defendant, the Court proceeded with the Probable Cause Hearing.

Whereupon, after inquiry the Court determined that the defendant was in fact indigent. The Court appointed Attorney Dean Topalof to represent the defendant herein.

Thereupon, the Court explained in detail to the defendant his legal and constitutional rights to a Preliminary Hearing and to a Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community

Controls. The defendant was advised of his right to require the State to prove the charges contained in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls, his opportunity to be heard and present evidence, and his right to confront adversary witnesses. The Court also advised the defendant that if he were found guilty of violating his conditions of community controls, he was entitled to have a written statement prepared by the Court containing the evidence relied on and the reasons for revoking said community controls.

The defendant, thereupon, indicated that it was his desire to waive his right to a Preliminary Hearing and to a Final Hearing, and he further indicated that it was his desire to plead guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant indicated that he was pleading guilty of his own voluntary and free will, and that no threats, promises, or other inducements had been made to him in order to obtain this plea. The defendant indicated that he had understood all of his legal and constitutional rights and further admitted on the record that he had committed the acts complained of in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Whereupon, the Court accepted the defendant's plea of guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Upon consideration of the admissions made by the defendant and upon review of the proceedings herein, the Court finds and concludes that the defendant has violated the terms of his Community Controls by failing to report to his supervising officer since September 5, 2007.

The Court further finds no good and sufficient reason why judgment and sentence ought not to be pronounced.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the community controls heretofore granted be and the same are hereby revoked; and it is further ordered that the defendant, Jerry C. Pegram, for conviction of the offense as charged under Count Two of the Indictment, to-wit: Receiving Stolen Property, in violation of R.C. 2913.51, a felony of the fourth degree, be confined in the Lorain Correctional Institution in Grafton, Ohio, for a period of one(1) year, of which zero (0) years are a mandatory term pursuant to R.C. 2929.13(F), 2929.14(D)(3) or Chapter 2925.

The Court has notified the defendant that the sentence imposed automatically includes any extension of the stated prison term by the parole board, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3).

In addition the offender shall be subject to a period of post-release control pursuant to R.C. 2929.14(F) and R.C. 2967.28(B) & ©.

It is further ordered, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3)(f), that the defendant not ingest or be injected with a drug of abuse and submit to random drug testing as provided in Section 341.26, 753.33 or 5120.63 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable.

The Court has considered the statutory criteria, the record, oral statements, any victim impact statement and Pre-sentence Investigation Report prepared, as well as the principles and purposes of sentencing under R.C. 2929.11, has balanced the seriousness and recidivism factors under R.C. 2929.12, and has considered the factors under R.C. 2929.13, and finds that the defendant is not amenable to community control and that prison is consistent with the purposes of R.C. 2929.11.

The defendant is ordered to pay all prosecution costs and any fees permitted pursuant to R.C. 2929.18(A)(4). All previously imposed orders not in conflict with this order shall remain in full force and effect.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that jail credit for one hundred sixty (160) days is granted, including this date of sentencing, to-wit: March 31, 2008, along with future custody days while the defendant awaits transportation to the appropriate state institution.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the defendant is remanded to the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department for transportation forthwith to the Lorain Correctional Institution in Grafton, Ohio.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is ordered to serve copies of this Judgment Entry upon Prosecuting Attorney Thomas L. Sartini; Attorney Dean F. Topalof; and Attorney Richard Danolfo; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; the Adult Parole Authority; and the Assignment Commissioner.

CASE NO. 06-CR-057

JUDGMENT ENTRY

This cause came on for Final Hearing on June 5, 2007, on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls filed against the defendant, Jerry C. Pegram. The State of Ohio was present and represented by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Harold E. Specht, Jr., and Jason Nespeca of the Adult Parole Authority. The defendant, Jerry C. Pegram, was present and accompanied by counsel, Richard Danolfo.

Thereupon, the Court explained in detail to the defendant his legal and constitutional rights to a Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant was advised of his right to require the State to prove the charges contained in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls, his opportunity to be heard and present evidence, and his right to confront adversary witnesses. The Court also advised the defendant that if he were found guilty of violating his conditions of community controls, he was entitled to have a written statement prepared by the Court containing the evidence relied on and the reasons for revoking said community control.

The defendant, thereupon, indicated that it was his desire to waive his right to a Final Hearing, and he further indicated that it was his desire to plead guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant indicated that he was pleading guilty of his own voluntary and free will, and that no threats, promises, or other inducements had been made to him in order to obtain this plea. The defendant indicated that he had understood all of his legal and constitutional rights and further admitted on the record that he had committed the acts complained of in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Whereupon, the Court accepted the defendant's plea of guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Upon consideration of the admissions made by the defendant and upon review of the proceedings herein, the Court finds and concludes that the defendant has violated the terms of his community controls by failing to report to his supervising officer of the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction for a scheduled office visit on 3/28/07; the defendant failed to keep his supervising officer informed of his place of residency; and the defendant failed to attend his scheduled drug/alcohol education group.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant be continued on community controls and that it now is changed from basic supervised to intensive supervision to include a Ten Dollar ($10.00) fee per month. As an additional condition of community controls the defendant is ordered to serve thirty (30) additional days in the Ashtabula County Jail.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant be re-evaluated by the Lake Area Recovery Center, that he enter, follow all rules and regulations and successfully complete any recommended program of treatment and any recommended aftercare program. All other terms of community controls shall remain in full force and effect.

The Court finds as of this date, to-wit: June 5, 2007, the defendant has a jail credit of one hundred-five(105) days.

Defendant is ordered to pay all costs of prosecution, and any fees permitted pursuant to R.C. 2929.18(A) (4).

Bond is hereby terminated and the defendant is remanded to the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department to commence serving the thirty (30) day sentence imposed herein.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is ordered to serve copies of this Judgment Entry upon Prosecuting Attorney Thomas L. Sartini; defense counsel Richard Danolfo; the Adult Parole Authority; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; and the Assignment Commissioner.

CASE NO. 06-CR-057

JUDGMENT ENTRY

This cause came on for Final Hearing on June 5, 2007, on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls filed against the defendant, Jerry C. Pegram. The State of Ohio was present and represented by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Harold E. Specht, Jr., and Jason Nespeca of the Adult Parole Authority. The defendant, Jerry C. Pegram, was present and accompanied by counsel, Richard Danolfo.

Thereupon, the Court explained in detail to the defendant his legal and constitutional rights to a Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant was advised of his right to require the State to prove the charges contained in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls, his opportunity to be heard and present evidence, and his right to confront adversary witnesses. The Court also advised the defendant that if he were found guilty of violating his conditions of community controls, he was entitled to have a written statement prepared by the Court containing the evidence relied on and the reasons for revoking said community control.

The defendant, thereupon, indicated that it was his desire to waive his right to a Final Hearing, and he further indicated that it was his desire to plead guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant indicated that he was pleading guilty of his own voluntary and free will, and that no threats, promises, or other inducements had been made to him in order to obtain this plea. The defendant indicated that he had understood all of his legal and constitutional rights and further admitted on the record that he had committed the acts complained of in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Whereupon, the Court accepted the defendant's plea of guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Upon consideration of the admissions made by the defendant and upon review of the proceedings herein, the Court finds and concludes that the defendant has violated the terms of his community controls by failing to report to his supervising officer of the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction for a scheduled office visit on 3/28/07; the defendant failed to keep his supervising officer informed of his place of residency; and the defendant failed to attend his scheduled drug/alcohol education group.

IT IS, THEREFORE; ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant be continued on community controls and that it now is changed from basic supervised to intensive supervision to include a Ten Dollar ($10.00) fee per month. As an additional condition of community controls the defendant is ordered to serve thirty (30) additional days in the Ashtabula County Jail.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant be re-evaluated by the Lake Area Recovery Center, that he enter, follow all rules and regulations and successfully complete any recommended program of treatment and any recommended aftercare program. All other terms of community controls shall remain in full force and effect.

The Court finds as of this date, to-wit: June 5, 2007, the defendant has a jail credit of one hundred-five(105) days.

Defendant is ordered to pay all costs of prosecution, and any fees permitted pursuant to R.C. 2929.18(A)(4).

Bond is hereby terminated and the defendant is remanded to the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department to commence serving the thirty (30) day sentence imposed herein.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is ordered to serve copies of this Judgment Entry upon Prosecuting Attorney Thomas L. Sartini; defense counsel Richard Danolfo; the Adult Parole Authority; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; and the Assignment Commissioner.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
ASHTABULA COUNTY, OHIO

THE STATE OF OHIO,

CAROL A. HEAD
Plaintiff, CLERK OF COURTS
COMMON PLEAS COURT
ASHTABULA CO. OH

CASE NO. 2006-CR-057

vs.

JERRY C. PEGRAM,

Defendant.

This 5th day of April, 2006, came Harold E. Specht, Jr., Assistant Prosecuting Attorney; and also came the Defendant, JERRY C. PEGRAM, under warrant heretofore issued on an indictment charging two (2) counts of "Receiving Stolen Property", in violation of Ohio Revised Code §2913.51.

Whereupon, the Court explained to the Defendant the nature of the charges, and that under the Criminal Rules he had the right to the services of an attorney before being arraigned on the charges laid in the indictment, and for the defense of the charges upon trial; that if the Defendant was found to be indigent, he had the right to have the Court appoint counsel for him at public expense; that he had a right to a reasonable continuance to obtain and consult with counsel; a right to bail; a right to a jury trial; and that he need make no statement in these proceedings, and that any statement made can and will be used against him.

The Court determined that the Defendant, JERRY C. PEGRAM, was an indigent person and appointed Richard R. Danolfo of the Ashtabula County Public Defender's office as counsel for the Defendant and enters his name as lawyer of record herein. With counsel present in court, the Defendant was thereupon arraigned.

IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant be assessed and pay Twenty-five and 00/100 Dollars ($25.00) to the Clerk of Courts, within seven (7) days, as and for an application fee for indigent appointment of counsel.

A copy of the indictment having been furnished the Defendant more than one day prior hereto, and counsel having had the opportunity to examine it, the Defendant thereupon waived the reading of the indictment.

The Defendant then being inquired of by the Court whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offenses as charged for plea says that he is not guilty.

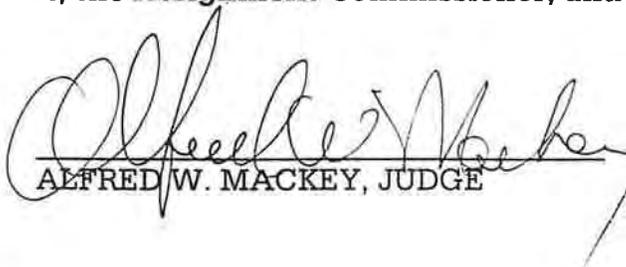

The date of trial will be set by the Assignment Commissioner of this Court within the time limits of Revised Code Section 2945.71(C), and written notice thereof furnished to counsel.

Upon inquiry by the Court, it was determined that the Defendant has spent sixty-four (64) days in jail pursuant to the charges contained in the indictment.

Bond is hereby set in the amount of Ten Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($10,000.00), personal recognizance, and with the condition that the Defendant have no contact, directly or indirectly, with Crista Brown or John J. Adkins. Upon posting of said bond, the Defendant may be released from the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department.

This case is assigned to Judge Ronald W. Vettel.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is directed to serve copies of this judgment entry upon the following: Prosecuting Attorney; Richard R. Danolfo, Esq.; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; the Assignment Commissioner; and the Honorable Ronald W. Vettel.

CASE NO. 02-CR-035

JUDGMENT ENTRY

2003 AUG 25 1:03:05

On August 25, 2003, this cause came on for consideration of defendant's Motion for Judicial Release of sentence heretofore imposed, as provided for in R.C. 2929.20, the arguments of counsel, and a review of the proceedings herein.

The State of Ohio being represented in open court by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, David Foster, and defendant, Jerry C. Pegram, not being present, however, he was represented by his counsel of record, Joseph A. Humpolick.

The Court finds that no good and sufficient cause has been shown as to why the Court should modify the former sentence herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that defendant's Motion for Judicial Release of sentence be and is hereby overruled. The Court finds that the defendant is not entitled to community controls as it would demean the seriousness of the defendant's conduct and not adequately protect the public from future crime by the defendant and others.

Costs herein are assessed against defendant.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is ordered to serve copies of this Judgment Entry upon Prosecuting Attorney Thomas L. Sartini; defense counsel Joseph A. Humpolick; the Adult Parole Authority; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; the Superintendent of the Lorain Correctional Institution, 2075 South Avon-Belden Road, Grafton, Ohio 44044; and the Assignment Commissioner.

CASE NO. 02-CR-035

JUDGMENT ENTRY OF SENTENCE

On April 17, 2003, defendant's Sentencing Hearing was held pursuant to R.C. 2929.19. Defense Attorney Joseph A. Humpolick and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Harold Specht were present as was defendant who was afforded all rights pursuant to Criminal Rule 32. The Court has considered the record, oral statements, any victim impact statement and Pre-sentence Investigation Report prepared, as well as the principles and purposes of sentencing under R.C. 2929.11, has balanced the seriousness and recidivism factors under R.C. 2929.12, and has considered the factors under R.C. 2929.13.

The Court finds that defendant has been convicted of the lesser included offense as charged in the Indictment, to-wit: Burglary, in violation of R.C. 2911.12(A)(4), the same being a felony of the fourth degree.

The Court further finds the following pursuant to R.C. 2929.13(B):

- ___ physical harm to a person;
- ___ possession of a firearm
- ___ attempt or threat with a weapon;
- ___ attempt or threat of harm and previous conviction for physical harm;
- ___ public trust, office or position
- ___ for hire, or organized crime;
- ___ sex offense;
- ___ previous prison term served;
- ___ offender already under community control; and the Court further finds the defendant is not amenable to community control and that prison is consistent with the purposes of R.C. 2929.11.

It is hereby ORDERED that defendant serve a term of twelve (12) months, to be served at the Lorain Correctional Institution in Grafton, Ohio, of which zero (0) years is a mandatory term pursuant to R.C. 2929.13(F), 2929.14(D)(3) or Chapter 2925.

The Court has notified the defendant that the sentence imposed automatically includes any extension of the stated prison term by the parole board, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3).

In addition the offender shall be subject to a period of post-release control pursuant to R.C. 2929.14(F) and R.C. 2967.28(B)&(C).

It is further ordered, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3)(f), that the defendant not ingest or be injected with a drug of abuse and submit to random drug testing as provided in Section 341.26, 753.33 or §120.63 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable.

Defendant is, therefore, ORDERED conveyed to the custody of the Lorain Correctional Institution at Grafton, Ohio, forthwith. Credit for sixty-eight (68) days is granted prior to this date of sentencing, to-wit: April 17, 2003. Credit is granted for future custody days while defendant awaits transportation to the appropriate State institution.

Defendant is ordered to pay all prosecution costs, court-appointed counsel costs and any fees permitted pursuant to R.C. 2929.18(A)(4).

No monetary fine is imposed pursuant to this charge and no restitution is ordered.

Bond as previously posted is hereby terminated and the defendant is remanded to the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department for transportation forthwith to the Lorain Correctional Institution at Grafton, Ohio.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is ordered to serve copies of this Judgment Entry upon Prosecuting Attorney Thomas L. Sartini, defense counsel Joseph A. Humpolick, the Adult Parole Authority, the Ashtabula County Sheriff's

JUDGMENT ENTRY

Mar 18 8 48 AM '02
FILED
ASHTABULA COUNTY, OHIO

This 15th day of March, 2002, came Teri Burnside, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney; and also came the Defendant, JERRY C. PEGRAM, under warrant heretofore issued on an indictment charging one (1) count of "Burglary", in violation of Ohio Revised Code §2911.12(A)(1).

Whereupon, the Court explained to the Defendant the nature of the charge, and that under the Criminal Rules he had the right to the services of an attorney before being arraigned on the charge laid in the indictment, and for the defense of the charge upon trial; that if the Defendant was found to be indigent, he had the right to have the Court appoint counsel for him at public expense; that he had a right to a reasonable continuance to obtain and consult with counsel; a right to bail; a right to a jury trial; and that he need make no statement in these proceedings, and that any statement made can and will be used against him.

The Court determined that the Defendant, JERRY C. PEGRAM, was an indigent person and appointed Margaret Kanellis of the Ashtabula County Public Defender's office as counsel for the Defendant and enters her name as lawyer of record herein. With counsel, Marie Lane on behalf of Margaret Kanellis, present in court, the Defendant was thereupon arraigned.

A copy of the indictment having been furnished the Defendant more than one day prior hereto, and counsel having had the opportunity to examine it, the Defendant thereupon waived the reading of the indictment.

The Defendant then being inquired of by the Court whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offense as charged for plea says that he is not guilty.

The date of trial will be set by the Assignment Commissioner of this Court within the time limits of Revised Code Section 2945.71(C), and written notice thereof furnished to counsel.

Upon inquiry by the Court, it was determined that the Defendant has been incarcerated since January 31, 2002, pursuant to the charge contained in the indictment.

Bond is hereby set in the amount of $2,500.00, cash or surety, with the 10% deposit rule, and with the condition that the Defendant have no contact, directly or indirectly, with Tracie Towner. Upon posting of said bond, the Defendant may be released from the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department.

This case is assigned to Judge Ronald W. Vettel.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is directed to serve copies of this judgment entry upon the following: Prosecuting Attorney; Margaret Kanellis, Esq.; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; the Assignment Commissioner; and the Honorable Ronald W. Vettel.

JUDGMENT ENTRY

RECEIVED
JUL 3 AM 9 16
JUL 2 1 44 PM '01
CAROL A HEAD
COMMON PLEAS COURT
ASHTABULA CNTY, OH.
FILED

On this day, the 28th of June, 2001, came Assistant Prosecuting Attorney David Foster, on behalf of the State of Ohio, also came the defendant, JERRY C. PEGRAM, represented by his counsel, Dennis Reid.

Whereupon, counsel for the defendant moved to withdraw the former plea of not guilty to the charge in the indictment and entered a written plea of no contest to Count One (1) "Attempted Burglary", a lesser included offense of the indictment, in violation of Ohio Revised Code Section 2923.02(A); 2911.12(A)(4), a felony of the fifth degree.

Upon inquiry by the Court, the defendant indicated that he was a United States citizen.

Thereupon, the Court explained in detail to the defendant his constitutional right to a jury trial and all aspects thereof, together with the right of this defendant to test the validity of any statement or admission, if any had been made, and his further right to test the validity of any search and seizure that may have been made of his property, either real or personal; the Court further explained to this defendant the nature of the crime with which he has been charged, together with the statutory penalty that could be imposed, and further inquired of the defendant whether the withdrawal of such former plea of not guilty and the entering of a plea of guilty to "Attempted Burglary" was his own personal desire and whether he fully understood all of his constitutional guarantees afforded him; whereupon the defendant answered both inquiries in the affirmative.

Thereupon, the Prosecutor related in detail the full circumstances of events occurring at the time in question.

Therefore it is the order of this Court that the defendant's plea of no contest to Count One "Attempted Burglary", in violation of O.R.C. 2923.02(A); 2911.12(A)(4), is hereby accepted by the Court and entered of record and upon the presentation of the evidence by the Prosecutor, the Court finds the defendant guilty of said offense.

Thereupon, the Court inquired of the defendant and his counsel if either one or both had anything to say as to why judgment and sentence should not be pronounced against him, and a statement was made by the defendant's counsel in mitigation.

Further, on this date, defendant's Sentencing Hearing was held pursuant to R.C. 2929.19. The defendant was afforded all rights pursuant to Criminal Rule 32. The Court considered the record, oral statements, as well as the principles and purposes of sentencing under R.C. 2929.11, has balanced the seriousness and recidivism factors under R.C. 2929.12, and has considered the factors under R.C. 2929.13(B).

The Court finds that the defendant, JERRY C. PEGRAM, has been convicted of "Attempted Burglary", in violation of Ohio Revised Code Section 2923.02(A); 2911.12 (A)(4), a felony of the fifth degree.

The Court finds that the defendant has served a prior prison term; the offense was committed while the defendant was on Post Release Control; the defendant has not responded favorably to past sanctions; the defendant has a history of criminal convictions and the defendant is not amenable to community control and that prison is consistent with the purpose of R.C. 2929.11;

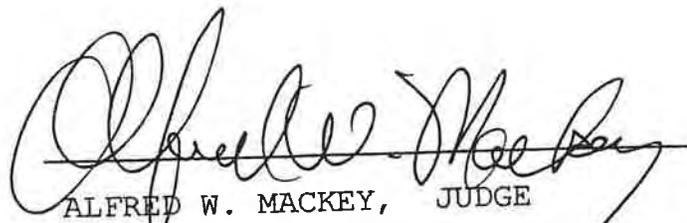

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the defendant, JERRY C. PEGRAM, serve a term of Six (6) months in prison, on the "Attempted Burglary" charge.

Further, as a result of defendant's Post Release Control violation under Ashtabula County Court of Common Pleas, Judge Vettel, Case No. 99 CR 167, pursuant to O.R.C. 2967.28(F)(4); it is ORDERED that the defendant serve an additional two (2) months incarceration to be served consecutively with the sentence imposed under this case.

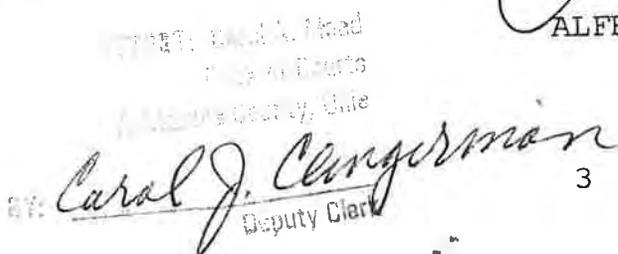

Defendant is ORDERED conveyed to the custody of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections forthwith. Credit for 72 days is granted as of this date along with future custody days while defendant awaits transportation to the appropriate State Institution.

Defendant is ordered to pay court costs and any fees permitted pursuant to R.C. 2929.18(A)(4).

Bond as previously set is hereby canceled.

CASE NO. 99-CR-167

JUDGMENT ENTRY OF SENTENCE

On December 23, 1999, defendant's Sentencing Hearing was held pursuant to R.C. 2929.19. Defense Attorney Dennis M. Reid and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney David Foster were present as was the defendant who was afforded all rights pursuant to Criminal Rule 32. The Court has considered the record, oral statements, any victim impact statement and Pre-sentence Investigation Report prepared, as well as the principles and purposes of sentencing under R.C. 2929.11, has balanced the seriousness and recidivism factors under R.C. 2929.12, and has considered the factors under R.C. 2929.13.

The Court finds that defendant has been convicted of the offense as charged in the Indictment, to-wit: Burglary, in violation of R.C. 2911.12(A)(4), a felony of the fourth degree.

The Court further finds the following pursuant to R.C.
2929.13(B):

- _____ physical harm to a person;
- _____ attempt or threat with a weapon;
- _____ attempt or threat of harm and previous conviction for physical harm;
- _____ public trust, office or position
- _____ for hire, or organized crime;
- _____ sex offense;
- _____ previous prison term served;
- QwV offender already under community control; and the Court further finds the defendant is not amenable to community control and that prison is consistent with the purposes of R.C. 2929.11;

It is hereby ORDERED that defendant serve a term of eight (8) months at the Lorain Correctional Institution in Grafton, Ohio, of which zero (0) months is a mandatory term pursuant to R.C. 2929.13(F), 2929.14(D)(3) or Chapter 2925.

It is further Ordered that this sentence run currently with the balance of the sentence currently being served on misdemeanor charges.

The Court has notified the defendant that the sentence imposed automatically includes any extension of the stated prison term by the parole board, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3).

Defendant is further ORDERED to pay all prosecution costs and any fees permitted pursuant to R.C. 2929.18(A)(4).

No monetary fine is ordered pursuant to this charge.

Defendant is ORDERED to pay restitution to the victim of this offense for property damages in an amount to be verified by the Adult Parole Authority, not to exceed One Hundred Eighty-Five Dollars ($185.00).

The Court then pursuant to Criminal Rule 32 advised the defendant that he had a right to appeal; that if he is unable to pay the cost of appeal, he has the right to an appeal without payment of costs; that if he is unable to obtain counsel for an appeal, counsel will be appointed by the Court without cost to him; that if he is unable to pay the costs of documents necessary for an appeal, such documents will be provided to him without cost; and that he has the right to have notice of appeal timely filed in his behalf.

Thereupon, the Court noted that the defendant had been appointed counsel for the defense of the charge and had prior to this date asserted that he was indigent. The Court then determined that the defendant continued at present to be indigent and would in the future be unable to secure employment and would, therefore, be indigent. Thereupon, at the request of the defendant and trial counsel Dennis Reid, the Court appointed Attorney Dennis Reid as appellate counsel for the defendant and directs that said counsel file a timely notice of appeal, if the defendant desires to file an appeal on an indigency basis. The Court further orders that said appellate counsel and the appeal transcript shall be paid at state expense.

Defendant is, therefore, ORDERED conveyed to the custody of the Lorain Correctional Institution at Grafton, Ohio, forthwith. Jail credit for one (1) day is granted prior to this date of sentencing, to-wit: December 23, 1999, along with future custody days while defendant awaits transportation to the appropriate State institution.

Bond as previously set is hereby terminated and defendant is remanded to the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department for transportation forthwith to the Lorain Correctional Institution at Grafton, Ohio.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is ordered to serve copies of this Judgment Entry upon Prosecuting Attorney Thomas L. Sartini; defense counsel Dennis M. Reid; the Adult Parole Authority; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; and the Assignment Commissioner.

This day came David Foster, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney; also came the Defendant, JERRY PEGRAM, under warrant heretofore issued on an indictment charging the offense of "Burglary", in violation of Ohio Revised Code §2911.12(A)(4).

Whereupon, the Court explained to the Defendant the nature of the charge and provided an explanation of his rights pursuant to Criminal Rule 10.

The Court determined that the Defendant, JERRY PEGRAM, was an indigent person and appointed Dennis M. Reid of the Ashtabula County Public Defenders office as counsel for the Defendant and enters his name as lawyer of record herein. With counsel present in court, the Defendant was thereupon arraigned.

A copy of the indictment having been furnished the Defendant more than one day prior hereto, and counsel having had the opportunity to examine it, the Defendant thereupon waived the reading of the indictment.

The Defendant then being inquired of by the Court whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offense as charged, for plea says that he is not guilty.

The date for trial will be set by the Assignment Commissioner of this Court within the time limits of R.C. §2945.71(C), and written notice thereof furnished to counsel.

Upon inquiry by the Court, it was determined that the Defendant has been incarcerated since July 21, 1999, pursuant to the charge contained in the indictment.

Bond is hereby set in the amount of $5,000.00, cash, commercial surety, or the 10% rule. Upon posting of said bond, the Defendant may be released from the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department.

This case is assigned to Judge Ronald W. Vettel.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is directed to serve copies of this Judgment Entry upon the Prosecuting Attorney; Dennis M. Reid, Esq.; the Honorable Ronald W. Vettel; the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department; and, the Assignment Commissioner.

Inter Office Communication

Date: 12-02-99

To: Cpl. Bargielski

Attention: Lt. J. T. Bemme

From: C.O. Ranski

Subject: Inmate Jerry Pegram

Today around 1645hrs. Officer Lopez and I were conducting cell checks on the fourth floor. Upon entering Four-East, I randomly singled out bunk #15 and began to search it. I/M Pegram walked over and asked why I was searching his bunk. He said he thinks I have it in for him and , according to him, that's why I was going through his belongings. I told him I randomly selected his bunk.

During the search, I/M Pegram made several remarks to me that I did not like him and that was the reason for the search. After conducting the search, I brought I/M Pegram out to the c.o.'s desk and asked him what his problem was. He again said I searched his bunk because I have a personal vendetta against him. He also told me that when he gets out of jail, he was contacting the Star Beacon newspaper and having an article written about how unfair I was and my disrespect towards him. I advised I/M Pegram I had no personal vendetta against him and that I was just doing my job. I also told him that If he did not like having his belongings searched, to not come to jail. I/M Pegram was told that jail inspections are randomly conducted, and that contrary to what he thinks, he was randomly selected. The inmate was then placed back in Four-East.

Inter Office Communication

Date: 04/22/01
To: Cpl. Bargielski
From: C.O./M.O. A.D. Specht
Subject: Inmate Marquette Rodgers

During the 0200 check tonight, Inmate Kip Ecklund told me that he thought Inmate Jerry Pegram stole corn chips, jolly ranchers and coffee from his commissary. Both inmates were brought out to the desk. Inmate Pegram denied any wrongdoing. When he was taken back into 5E to get his belongings, Pegram asked that the guilty party step forward. Inmate Marquette Rodgers said that he took the commissary and there was none left. Inmate Rodgers was moved to 4W/04 and placed in lock up with disciplinary charges pending. He said that people stole his commissary and now "I'm stealing theirs."

STATE OF OHIO,

Defendant.

W.R. NIEM, SHERIFF

CASE NO. 2015 CR 00590

JUDGE THOMAS E. HARRIS

JUDGMENT ENTRY

FILED
2023 JAN -9 A 10:54
PHIL DANIELS
CLERK OF COURTS
COMMON PLEAS COURT
ASHTABULA CO OH

This cause came on for Preliminary Hearing on January 5, 2023, on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls filed against the Defendant, JERRY PEGRAM. The State of Ohio was represented by Assistant County Prosecutor MICHAEL BODYKE and Brianna Kasprzak of the Adult Probation Department. The Defendant was in court, in custody, and was represented by Attorney ANTONIO NICHOLSON.

After review of the Defendant's Financial Disclosure Form, the Court determined that the Defendant was, in fact, indigent. The Court appointed Attorney ANTONIO NICHOLSON to represent the Defendant herein.

The Defendant was notified at their Sentencing Hearing that if they violated the terms and conditions of their Community Control that they could be imprisoned for up to thirty-six (36) months.

Thereupon, the Court explained in detail to the Defendant their legal and constitutional rights to a Preliminary Hearing and to a Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community Control. The Defendant was advised of their right to require the State to prove the charge contained in the Complaint for Violation of Community Control, their opportunity to be heard and present evidence, and their right to confront adversary witnesses. The Court also advised the Defendant that if they were found guilty of violating their conditions of Community Control, they are entitled to have a written statement prepared by the Court containing the evidence relied on and the reasons for revoking said Community Control.

The Defendant, thereupon, indicated that it was their desire to waive their right to a Preliminary Hearing and to a Final Hearing, and they further indicated that it was their desire to plead guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Control. The Defendant indicated that they are pleading guilty of their own voluntary and free will, and that no threats, promises, or other inducements had been made to them in order to obtain this plea. The Defendant indicated that they have understood all of their legal and constitutional rights and further admitted on the record that they have committed the act complained of in the Complaint for Violation of Community Control.

Thereupon, the Court accepted the Defendant's plea of guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Control.

Upon consideration of the admissions made by the Defendant and upon review of the proceedings herein, the Court finds and concludes that the Defendant has violated the terms of their Community Control, in that they have failed to report since March 28, 2019.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Defendant, be continued on Community Controls for two years, and extended to January 5, 2025.

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED that the defendant shall be sent to the NorthEast Ohio Community Alternative Program (NEOCAP), that they enter the program, faithfully follow and adhere to all of the administrative rules and regulations of the program, that they successfully complete the program, and that they enter and successfully complete any recommended aftercare program.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that while engaged in the program at the NorthEast Ohio Community Alternative facility, the defendant shall:

A. Obey and be subject to all the rules and regulations of the NorthEast Ohio Community Alternative Program.

B. Fulfill the terms of his Individual Program plan.

C. Be financially responsible for his clothing, medical, and dental needs.

D. Participate in community service work, if and when directed to do so.

E. Be supervised by the Trumbull County Adult Probation Program.

Defendant is ordered to pay all Court costs.

Defendant is granted a jail credit of 141 days prior to this date, to-wit: January 5, 2023.

All previously imposed orders not in conflict with this order shall remain in full force and effect.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department until such time that the defendant is notified that a bed is available at the NEOCAP facility.

Pursuant to Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of this Court is directed to serve notice of this judgment and its date of entry in the journal upon the following: ANTONIO NICHOLSON; PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE; PROBATION DEPARTMENT; ASHTABULA COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT.

JUDGEMENT

JUDGE Thomas E. Harris

The defendant, Jerry Pegram, was placed on Community Control on October 12, 2018 by the Honorable Thomas E. Harris for a period of two (2) years for the offense(s) of Illegal Assembly of Possession of Chemicals for the Manufacture of Drugs.

It has come to the attention of the Court that Jerry Pegram, the defendant herein, has repeatedly failed and refused to comply with the orders of supervision previously filed in that the defendant has failed to report since March 28, 2019. The defendant's last known address is 1931 E. Prospect Rd. Lot 521 Ashtabula, OH 44004; his/her DOB is 3/17/91; and his/her Social Security Number is XXX-XX-XXXX.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that a Capias shall issue and said defendant shall be arrested and remain in custody until such time that a hearing can be held to show why supervision should not be terminated, and the previously suspended sentence imposed as outlined in Section 2951.08 of the Ohio Revised Code.

IT IS ALSO ORDERED that the supervision of the above defendant be tolled as of March 28, 2019 because said defendant has not made himself/herself available for proper supervision as outlined in Section 2951.07 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Thomas E. Harris, Judge

Pursuant to the requirements of Civil Rule 58(B), the Clerk of the Ashtabula County Common Pleas Court is hereby ordered to serve copies of the within judgment entry, upon the following: Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department Warrants Division and Dispatch Center; Ashtabula County Adult Probation Department; Ashtabula County Prosecutor's Office; and Counsel for the defendant Edith Jonas.

COMMON PLEAS COURT      JUDGMENT ENTRY
ASHTABULA CO. OH

JERRY C. PEGRAM,      )
Date of Birth: 3/17/71      )
SS No. [REDACTED]      )
Defendant.      )

This matter came on for consideration of the Court on the final hearing to determine whether the defendant is in violation of the conditions of community controls heretofore imposed. The defendant was present with counsel, Ariana Tarighati. The State of Ohio was present and represented by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Gene Barrett, and Brett Kiser of the Adult Probation Department.

Whereupon the Court advised the defendant of his legal and constitutional rights to a final hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant was advised his rights to a Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of the Community Controls. The defendant was advised of his right to require the State to prove the charges in the complaint for Violation of Community Control, his opportunity to be heard and present evidence, and his right to confront adversary witnesses. The Court also advised the defendant that if he were found guilty of violating his conditions of Community Controls, he was entitled to have a written statement prepared by the Court containing the evidence relied on and the reasons for revoking said Community Control.

The defendant, thereupon, indicated that it was his desire to waive his right to a Final Hearing, and he further indicated that it was his desire to plead guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant indicated that he was pleading guilty of his own voluntary and free will, and that no threats, promises, or other inducements had been made to him in order to obtain this plea. The defendant indicated that he had understood all his legal and constitutional rights and further admitted on the record that he had committed the acts complained of in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Upon, the Court accepted the defendant's plea of guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Upon consideration of the admissions made by the defendant

and upon review of the proceedings herein, the Court finds and concludes that the defendant has violated the terms of his Community Controls heretofore imposed by failing to report to his supervising officer since October 19, 2011, the defendant was ordered to report weekly.

The defendant was than asked if he had any thing to say as to why judgment and sentence should not now be pronounced or in mitigation of sentence; and the defendant through counsel offering no good and sufficient reason why judgment and sentence should not now be pronounced, IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, Jerry Pegram, be sentenced to the Lorain Correctional Facility in Grafton, Ohio, on the lesser included offense as charged under Count One of the Indictment, to-wit: Attempted Theft Of A Motor Vehicle, in violation of R.C.2923.021 and R.C. 2913.02, a felony of the fifth degree, for a period of twelve (12) months, of which zero (0) months is a mandatory term pursuant to R.C. 2929.13(F), 2929.14(D)(3) or Chapter 2925. Said sentence shall be served concurrently with the sentence imposed by Judge Alfred Mackey, Case No. 09-CR-271.

The Court has notified the defendant that the sentence imposed automatically includes any extension of the stated prison term by the parole board, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3).

In addition the offender may be subject to a period of three (3) years, Post Release Control pursuant to R.C. 2929.14(F) and R.C.2967.28 after the offender is released from prison.

The defendant is notified that he may be eligible to earn day of credit to reduce the prison sentence for each completed month of productive participation in educational or employment programs as specified in section 2967.193ORC. The credits are not awarded automatically and must be earned. The sentence may be reduced by up to eight (8%) percent for credits earned.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Prison Imposed Notice Form, which is attached hereto and which was signed by the defendant and counsel on the record, is incorporated herein and made a part hereof.

JUDGMENT ENTRY

JERRY C. PEGRAM,

Date of Birth: 3/17/71

SS No. [REDACTED]

Defendant.

This matter came on for consideration of the Court on the final hearing to determine whether the defendant is in violation of the conditions of community controls heretofore imposed. The defendant was present with counsel, Ariana Tarighati. The State of Ohio was present and represented by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Gene Barrett, and Brett Kiser of the Adult Probation Department.

Whereupon the Court advised the defendant of his legal and constitutional rights to a final hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant was advised his rights to a Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of the Community Controls. The defendant was advised of his right to require the State to prove the charges in the complaint for Violation of Community Control, his opportunity to be heard and present evidence, and his right to confront adversary witnesses. The Court also advised the defendant that if he were found guilty of violating his conditions of Community Controls, he was entitled to have a written statement prepared by the Court containing the evidence relied on and the reasons for revoking said Community Control.

The defendant, thereupon, indicated that it was his desire to waive his right to a Final Hearing, and he further indicated that it was his desire to plead guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls. The defendant indicated that he was pleading guilty of his own voluntary and free will, and that no threats, promises, or other inducements had been made to him in order to obtain this plea. The defendant indicated that he had understood all his legal and constitutional rights and further admitted on the record that he had committed the acts complained of in the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Upon, the Court accepted the defendant's plea of guilty to the Complaint for Violation of Community Controls.

Upon consideration of the admissions made by the defendant

and upon review of the proceedings herein, the Court finds and concludes that the defendant has violated the terms of his Community Controls heretofore imposed by failing to report to his supervising officer since October 19, 2011, the defendant was ordered to report weekly.

The defendant was than asked if he had any thing to say as to why judgment and sentence should not now be pronounced or in mitigation of sentence; and the defendant through counsel offering no good and sufficient reason why judgment and sentence should not now be pronounced, IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, Jerry Pegram, be sentenced to the Lorain Correctional Facility in Grafton, Ohio, on the offense as charged under Count One of the Indictment, to-wit: Failure to Comply With Order or Signal of Police Officer, in violation of R.C.2921.331(B), a felony of the third degree, for a period of three (3) years, of which zero (0) years is a mandatory term pursuant to R.C. 2929.13(F), 2929.14(D)(3) or Chapter 2925. Said sentence shall be served consecutively with the sentences imposed by the Ashtabula County Common Pleas Court, Case No. 09-CR-298 and 09-CR-271.

The Court has notified the defendant that the sentence imposed automatically includes any extension of the stated prison term by the parole board, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3).

In addition the offender may be subject to a period of three (3) years, Post Release Control pursuant to R.C. 2929.14(F) and R.C.2967.28 after the offender is released from prison.

The defendant is notified that he may be eligible to earn day of credit to reduce the prison sentence for each completed month of productive participation in educational or employment programs as specified in section 2967.193ORC. The credits are not awarded automatically and must be earned. The sentence may be reduced by up to eight (8%) percent for credits earned.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Prison Imposed Notice Form, which is attached hereto and which was signed by the defendant and counsel on the record, is incorporated herein and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, pursuant to R.C. 2929.19(B)(3)(f), that the defendant not ingest or be injected with a drug of abuse and submit to random drug testing as provided in Section 341.26, 753.33 or 5120.63 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant be conveyed to the custody of the Lorain Correctional Institution at Grafton, Ohio forthwith.

Defendant is granted jail credit of Two Hundred Seventy-five (275) days including this date of sentencing, to-wit: September 5, 2012, along with future custody days while the defendant waits to be transportation to the appropriate state institution.

The Court has considered the statutory criteria, the record, oral statements, any victim impact statement and pre-sentence Investigation Report prepared, as well as the principles and purposes of sentencing under R.C. 2929.11, has balanced the seriousness and recidivism factors under R.C. 2929.12, and has considered the factors under R.C. 2929.13 and finds that the defendant is not amendable to further community control and that prison is consistent with the purposes of R.C. 2929.11.

The defendant is ordered to pay court costs.

All previously imposed orders not in conflict with this order shall remain in full force and effect.

Any right to bond is hereby terminated and the defendant

JUDGMENT ENTRY

JERRY PEGRAM JR.,

Defendant.

This cause came on for Preliminary Hearing on July 13, 2012, on the Complaint for Violation of Community Control of Conviction filed against the defendant, Jerry Pegram, Jr. The State of Ohio was present and represented by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Susan Thomas, and Stephanie Magda of the Adult Probation Department. The defendant, Jerry Pegram Jr., was present, and was accompanied by Attorney Ariana Tarighati.

Whereupon, after inquiry the Court determined that the defendant was in fact indigent. The Court, has previously appointed Attorney Ariana Tarighati to represent the defendant herein.

Whereupon, the Court advised the defendant of his legal and constitutional rights to a Preliminary Hearing and a Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community Control of Conviction. The Court advised the defendant that he had a right to notice and a right to be present and present evidence, that he had a right to confront adverse witnesses called by the State of Ohio, that he had a right to an independent decision-maker, and that he was entitled to a written report of the hearing and the evidence relied upon by the Court to find probable cause was established, if that in fact was the case.

Upon inquiry by the Court, the defendant indicated that he understood his constitutional and legal rights and further indicated that he desired to waive the Preliminary Hearing. Upon further inquiry by the Court, the Court determined that said waiver was being voluntarily made with full knowledge of all legal and constitutional rights, and upon advice of counsel, and thereupon, the Court accepted the waiver of the Preliminary Hearing.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that this matter be continued and scheduled September 5, 2012 at 10:00 A.M. for Final Hearing on the Complaint for Violation of Community Control. Written notice shall be furnished to counsel for both parties.

No Bond is hereby set, and the defendant is remanded to the custody of the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department
