Kia Walker

In Sergeant Orrand's report, it states,

“When I returned to work later the same night I received (sic) a phone call from Kia Walker (Jayland's sister 234-500-0027). She stated that Jayland has not been the same since his Fiance died in Cincinnati (sic) on May 27, 2022. I recorded our conversation and uploaded it into Evidence.com, then advised my chain of command about the conversation.”

SA Momchilov obtained a copy of that audio recording. SA Momchilov reviewed the audio recording and learned that the female's voice on the recording is very faintly heard and indistinguishable. SA Momchilov sent the following email to Sergeant Orrand:

From: Cory Momchilov <Cory.Momchilov@OhioAGO.gov>

Sergeant,

Its my understanding that you conducted an interview of one of Walker's family members. I believe I have the audio recording, which I attached to this report. For some reason, I am having a hard time hearing what the person is saying. I am not sure if it is on my copy or just the recording itself. Let me know.

Thanks.

SA Momchilov received the following response from Sergeant Orrand:

I had the phone jack plugged in wrong so it's messed up. It was his sister and she stated that his (Jayland's) fiancé had died in Cincinnati and he has not been right since.

SA Momchilov sent the audio recording to the Ohio Organized Crime Investigations Commission in an attempt to enhance/clarify the audio. SA Momchilov later received the clarified audio recording and the female's voice is still indistinguishable.
