

I have since received a statement from the Superintendent of Insurance in which he states that The Ohio Insurance Company has not been licensed since April 1, 1896, and that its retirement from business dates from that day.

His statement also informs me that The Cooper Insurance Company ceased operations in Ohio, having reinsured its business July 11, 1911, since which time no license has been issued to it, nor any reports filed by it.

I am submitting herewith the statement of Hon. Harry L. Conn, Superintendent of Insurance of Ohio, as mentioned.

There is also accompanying your letter an affidavit from W. A. Hoskin corroborating the statement of facts as made by the Superintendent of Insurance, and submitting additional facts showing that the companies have long since ceased to function. This affidavit is also returned to you herewith.

I am also returning two checks, one for $200 and one for $100, in payment of incorporation fees, accompanying the proposed articles of incorporation.

Under the circumstances, I see no objection to your noting on the records of your office that the companies named have abandoned their corporate authority.

I herewith return to you with my approval endorsed thereon, the articles of incorporation of The Ohio Insurance Company and The Cooper Insurance Company.

Respectfully,

C. C. CRABBE,

Attorney General.
