BOLO OFFICER SAFETY

Jonnie Hanks W/M 55 is the brother of James Gross (Deceased). He has repeatedly called investigators and threatened them and the officers involved in the incident which involved his deceased brother (James Gross). He currently has an address listed in Nahunta, Georgia but has made threats to come to Akron if his demands are not met.

The listed picture is the only one I have of him. I also don't know when it was taken so his appearance might have changed. I also do not have any other physical identifiers. He has a CDL and indicated he is an over the road truck driver.

This information is for officer safety only. He does not have any warrants for his arrest.
