911 Calls:

A female (Donna Gullett) called 911 stating that there is a domestic where a male is threatening to kill her and himself. Her call was transferred to the sheriff's office. Gullett says that Skylar Corbin is out here threatening to kill himself and [REDACTED]. Yelling is heard over the line. Gullett says that Corbin is threatening to kill her. Gullett said that she was going to take [REDACTED] back to her house and Corbin showed up saying that he was going to kill her before she goes back and that he is going to kill himself. Gullett tells the dispatcher that he has an icepick out. Gullett says that they are all outside in the yard.

Gullett said that they are still fighting, and she tells the dispatcher that [REDACTED] said that Corbin stabbed her in the face. Gullett says that they are continuing to fight but they are both physically ok.

The dispatcher asks if Corbin still has the icepick in his hand; Gullett was unsure. She says they're calming down some. The dispatcher tells deputies that they are calming down. The dispatcher tells Gullett that she is going to disconnect the call and she should go inside the house. The call ends.

Throughout the call, Gullett was very muffled and spoke quietly making it difficult to understand her.
