

which held that the provisions of Section 6351, General Code, did not exempt the holder of a peddler's license from the payment of a fee required by municipal ordinance for a license to operate a shooting gallery. That the Legislature did not intend the provisions of this section to extend to the issuance of a permit by a board of health is apparent from a consideration of the purpose clause of the bill enacting Section 6351 in its present form, which reads:

"To amend Section 6351 of the General Code relative to exempting honorably discharged soldiers or sailors of the United States who participated in the World War, from payment of the full fee for a traveling merchant's license."

In view of the foregoing and in specific answer to your inquiry, I am of the opinion that the fee exemption provision of Section 6351, General Code, relative to peddlers' licenses does not apply to the fee required for a permit issued by a board of health under Section 4459, General Code.

Respectfully,

GILBERT BETTMAN,
Attorney General.
