

1. In the event an initiative petition proposing an amendment to the Constitution has been circulated in the year 1929, and a number of signatures then secured thereto, such signatures if secured in accordance with the laws then in force and effect may be considered sufficient and counted in determining the requisite number of signatures upon such petition when filed in 1930.

2. When copy of such petition was filed in 1929, under the provisions of Section 5175-29c, General Code, as then in force and effect, additional signatures may now be secured to such petition.

Respectfully,
GILBERT BETTMAN,
Attorney General.
