RE: Request for Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigations – Force Investigation Unit

Special Agent Supervisor Moran,

I respectfully request the assistance of the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI), Force Investigation Unit, in conducting an independent investigation into the totality of the circumstances surrounding, and the subsequent officer-involved critical incident that occurred within the City of Oregon on June 6, 2026.

This incident involved a law enforcement officer employed by the Mercy Health Partners Public Safety Department. Given the nature of the incident and in the interest of ensuring a thorough, impartial, and transparent investigation, the Oregon Police Division requests that BCI assume responsibility for investigating the facts and circumstances related to this event.

Your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated. Please contact me if additional information or documentation is required.

Respectfully,

Brandon H. Begin

Chief of Police
