Department of Industrial Relations, Industrial Commission of Ohio, Columbus, Ohio.

GENTLEMEN:—An examination of the certified copy of the transcript in connection with the foregoing issue of bonds discloses that these bonds have been issued under the provisions of section 7630-1 of the General Code, and that the issue is based upon an order prohibiting the use of the former school building, signed by E. U. Whitaker, chief of the division. The transcript does not show that the order was ever approved by the Department of Industrial Relations, or signed and sealed by the director of said department.
