Mr. Robert W. Newlon, Attorney at Law
Columbus, Ohio

Dear Sir :

In accordance with the provisions of Section 4785-175 of the General Code, you have submitted for my examination a written petition signed by one hundred qualified electors of this state, proposing the enactment of a law to provide for local option on the question of the sale of alcoholic liquors in counties and other political units, and to amend Section 6064-39 of the General Code, together with a summary of the same. (See File—Attorney General.)

Upon examination of said proposed law and amendment and said summary thereof, I am of the opinion that said summary is a fair and truthful statement of said proposed law and amendment and accordingly submit for the uses provided by law the following certification:

“Pursuant to the duties imposed upon me under the provisions of Section 4785-175 of the General Code, I hereby certify that the attached summary is a fair and truthful statement of the proposed law providing for local option on the question of the sale of alcoholic liquors in counties and other political units, and the proposed amendment to Section 6064-39 of the General Code of Ohio. HUGH S. JENKINS, Attorney General.”

Respectfully,

HUGH S. JENKINS,
Attorney General.
