DEAR SIR:—There have been submitted for my examination two reservoir land leases pertaining to land at Buckeye Lake. One lease is executed for fifteen years to A. C. Finding these leases to be executed in proper legal form, I have attached my signature thereto in approval.

APPROVAL, ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE CINCINNATI EQUITABLE INSURANCE COMPANY.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, May 2, 1932.

HON. CLARENCE J. BROWN, Secretary of State, Columbus, Ohio.

DEAR SIR:—I acknowledge receipt of a copy of the proposed articles of incorporation of the Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Company, a copy of the proposed deed of settlement and by-laws and regulations. As I have no authority to approve or disapprove the deed of settlement or the by-laws and regulations, I have not examined the same. I suggest that the completed original amended articles of incorporation be submitted to me for my approval before they are filed by you.

The Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Company, which was incorporated under a special act of the legislature, will become amenable to the laws of this state with reference to the incorporation of such companies by this action which it proposes to take. Section 9607-2a, General Code, provides for the filing of amendments of mutual fire insurance companies with the Secretary of State. As there is nothing in the laws with reference to mutual fire insurance companies describing the procedure to be followed where it is desired to file amended articles of incorporation, it is my opinion that the general corporation act would apply.

I suggest therefore that as required by section 8623-15, General Code, the amended articles contain the statement that they supersede and take the place of the theretofore existing articles, and that a certificate be subscribed and acknowledged at the end thereof setting forth the manner of the adoption of such amended articles.

Respectfully,

GILBERT BETTMAN,
Attorney General.

APPROVAL, PETITION FOR AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE XII OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, May 3, 1932.

HON. JACOB S. COXEY, SR., Massillon, Ohio.

DEAR SIR:—You have submitted for my examination a written petition signed by one hundred qualified electors of this state, containing a measure to be referred and a summary of the same, under the provisions of Section 4785-175, General Code.
