Narrative:

On Saturday, June 06, 2026, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Special Agent (SA) Josh Rammel (SA Rammel) met with Mercy Health Partners Public Safety Department (MHPD) [REDACTED] in order to gather a few details and ask a few safety related questions prior to [REDACTED] being released from the scene.

SA Rammel met with [REDACTED] in a secured room located inside St. Charles Hospital. SA Rammel advised [REDACTED] that he did not want to ask him any question about what occurred during the Officer Involved Critical Incident (OICI) but had a few basic questions concerning [REDACTED] identity and to make sure that [REDACTED] was not injured.

[REDACTED] provided basic information such as his full name, work title, date of birth, address, and phone number.

[REDACTED] also advised that he was not injured. [REDACTED] stated that Strassburg did not touch him on any part of his body, nor did any blood from Strassburg get on any article of clothing worn by [REDACTED]

SA Rammel took photographs of [REDACTED] including front, back, both profiles, and up close of [REDACTED]'s name.

[REDACTED] confirmed that he was wearing the exact same clothes that he had on during the OICI. [REDACTED] also confirmed that he had not done anything to his duty weapon, which [REDACTED] told SA Rammel was the only firearm involved.

After taking photographs of [REDACTED], SA Rammel took possession of [REDACTED] firearm, removed the magazine and the round in the chamber, and secured it in a gun box for additional photographs from the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Crimes Scene Unit (CSU).

██████████ indicated that the MHPD was a non-union position, but he was under the assumption that the Mercy Health Medical Group was going to provide him with an attorney for at least the initial aspects of the investigation. SA Rammel provided ██████████ with his contact information to forward it on to ██████████ attorney if the attorney is assigned after ██████████ left the scene.

After the brief conversation with ██████████, SA Rammel advised the MHPD Administration at the scene that ██████████ was clear to leave.

The initial meeting was not recorded.

The photographs taken of ██████████ were placed in Axon Justice/Evidence.com under the listed reference information.
