Officer Involved Critical Incident - 640 Daniel Court #16A,
Cincinnati, OH 45244 (L)

██████████ had control of one of Calloway's arms and the other arm was tucked underneath Calloway. ██████████ stated that he attempted to take control of Calloway's tucked arm. ██████████ said he felt resistance and had to use some strength to pull it out from under Calloway. ██████████ stated that once Calloway's arm was free, he assisted with handcuffing and rolling Calloway to his side.

He stated that Calloway's eyes were rolled back and he was not responsive. ██████████ described that he heard what sounded like snoring from Calloway. ██████████ then assisted repositioning the handcuffs from behind Calloway's back to his front. ██████████ advised that a squad was requested and ██████████ retrieved an AED. ██████████ stated that officers took turns administering CPR. ██████████ said that he provided CPR for approximately three (3) minutes prior to EMS arrival. While administering CPR, ██████████ described that Calloway's chest was wet, which he later realized was urine. He described smelling a strong odor of urine inside the residence.

██████████ stated that he did not hear officers give Calloway verbal commands or hear any verbal statements made by Calloway. ██████████ could not recall how Calloway's face was positioned when he arrived on scene. ██████████ did not observe any physical injuries on Calloway.

The interview concluded at 1147 hours. The audio recorded interview has been uploaded and stored in Axon.
