

In view of the foregoing, and in specific answer to your inquiry, I am of the opinion that if the judge of the court of common pleas deems it advisable to appoint a criminal bailiff, upon such appointment the criminal bailiff then becomes a deputy sheriff.

Respectfully,
GILBERT BETTMAN,
Attorney General.

HON. I. S. GUTHERY, Director of Agriculture, Columbus, Ohio.

DEAR SIR:—This is to acknowledge the receipt of a recent communication from the Division of Conservation in your department, submitting for my examination and approval a certain reservoir land lease in triplicate, which is executed by the Conservation Commissioner on behalf of the State of Ohio, and by which there is leased and demised to one W. This lease, which calls for an annual rental of $24.00, is for a term of fifteen years and is granted subject to the conditions and restrictions usually found in leases of this kind.

Upon examining said lease, I find that the same has been properly executed in accordance with the authority conferred upon the Conservation Commissioner by the provisions of Section 471, General Code, as amended in the Conservation Act passed by the 88th General Assembly, and that the provisions thereof are in conformity with the provisions of said section and of other sections of the General Code relating to leases of this kind. Said lease is accordingly hereby approved by me as to legality and form, as is evidenced by my approval endorsed upon said lease, and upon the duplicate and triplicate copies thereof, all of which are herewith returned.

Respectfully,
