If you're reading this, you've received a letter from a creditor. This letter is being sent to you because you have not paid your account for a long time. We are trying to help you get caught up on your account. If you don't pay your account, we may have to take legal action against you. This could result in a lawsuit, a judgment against you, and a lien on your property. We want to help you avoid these consequences. Please contact us today to discuss your account and how we can help you get caught up on your payments.
