Of the casings/projectiles recovered, the following identifications were made:

1. Rifle
2. Sig Sauer Pistol [REDACTED]
3. Sig Sauer Pistol [REDACTED]

SA Poole reviewed the laboratory report and noted the following:

1. Rifle was source identified to Items 6, 7, 10, 11: 5.56 NATO fired cartridge casings. Concluded as Operable.

Witnesses

Debra Arthurs:

Debra explained she arrived at her husband's tow company property, ANS Towing, following a disturbance with the neighboring resident. Debra explained by that point, the disturbance had concluded and deputies from RCSO arrived on scene. Debra explained that her son, Anthony Arthurs (Anthony), had lost his glasses during the altercation and a customer had also lost his glasses so Debra was helping search for the glasses. The deputies were gathering information regarding the disturbance and shortly thereafter Debra heard gunfire. Debra explained that she first heard gunfire from one (1) gun, followed by gunfire from what sounded to be from a second firearm. Debra surmised that there were two (2) different guns that she heard fired.

SA Ryan asked Debra if she saw or heard anything accompanying the gunfire. Debra explained she could not see anything; however, heard a female screaming, but was unsure what was said. SA Ryan asked Debra if the deputies were wearing law enforcement uniforms and she confirmed they were; it was visually apparent that they were law-enforcement.

Shawnee Certain:

Certain discussed an altercation that she was aware of earlier that day. Certain explained she is an employee and tow truck driver for ANS Towing. When Certain arrived to ANS Towing, RCSO were already on scene and she witnessed two (2) deputy cruisers present. Certain was told there had been a physical altercation because a customer (someone whose vehicle had previously been towed) had mistakenly pulled into and parked in the neighbor's driveway located at 371 SR 180 in Chillicothe, Ohio. Certain was told the male, who has been identified as Christopher Lemaster (Lemaster), got into a physical altercation with the neighbor, who Certain described looking like "Santa Claus." "Santa Claus" has been identified as Bryan Rothe (Rothe). Certain said she heard Rothe's son and daughter had also been involved. Certain said she did not witness any of the altercation, but noticed that her boss' son, Anthony "Tony" Arthur's face was covered in blood.

While the deputies were on scene and mitigating the situation, she explained they were all looking for missing glasses which were lost during the altercation. During that time, Certain noticed a sheriff's deputy, who she described as "skinny," go around the property to the rear residence (Rothe's residence). Certain estimated approximately seven or eight (7 or 8) minutes after, she started hearing gunfire. Certain explained the first volley of gunfire sounded to be from a ".22" caliber firearm. Certain estimated the first volley sounded like it was approximately four (4) shots. Certain then heard loud gunfire which she presumed was from the deputy's firearm. Certain estimated hearing approximately five or six (5 or 6) shots. Certain explained she grabbed everyone and directed them behind cover because she heard gunfire potentially hitting vehicles. Certain described the incident as "terrifying." Certain noted all the gunfire came from the northwest area where Rothe resides.

Certain noted, recently there had been some property disputes with Rothe and his family and things have become tense. There had also been an issue with the dumpster. Additionally, Certain explained a couple of months ago, there had been a fire at Rothe's house, potentially caused by an oil spill and ANS Towing may have been to blame. After that point, Certain stated Rothe had become "crazy."

Jessie Farney:

Farney explained the deputies arrived very shortly after and gathered the information about the altercation and started mitigating the situation. Farney noted the law enforcement deputies were aggravated with them as well.

Shortly after the deputies approached Bryan's residence, because he instigated the situation, she heard approximately five (5) small pops from a firearm and then approximately twenty-five (25) to thirty (30) loud booms from a different firearm. Farney explained everything happened very quickly and she ended up collapsing from anxiety. SA Ryan asked Farney if she heard anyone speak during the gunfire. Farney explained that because of her state of mind, she didn't hear anything else.

Anthony Arthurs:

Arthurs stated that he had the male on the ground on his back, while others were on Arthurs' back, and Arthurs got up, turned around and pinned Bryan against the tree before all agreed that they were done with the altercation. Arthurs stated that things seemed to be calming down, and that Wesley was helping Arthurs look for his glasses on the ground. Arthurs stated that Bryan then moved the tractor to the end of the driveway to block it and went back to his residence. Arthurs wasn't sure of the route that Bryan took to get back to his residence but indicated that Arthurs' girlfriend had a video.

Arthurs stated that he then began hearing gunshots and stated that it was Bryan that was shooting. Arthurs stated that the deputies took off running, and everyone was getting down on the ground, and that then Arthurs then heard the deputies shooting. Arthurs grabbed his girlfriend and took her down the road to safety and put her in an unknown female's vehicle that was traveling on the road, toward 159. Arthurs stated that there were no deputies at Bryan's residence when the shooting started. SA North asked Arthurs whether Bryan was already back in his residence when the deputies arrived on scene. Arthurs agreed that he was.

Wesley Rothe:

Wesley indicated that when the gunshots were heard, he was in the yard between his property (located at 393 SR 180) and the tow yard property. Wesley indicated that an altercation had taken place, and deputies from the Ross County Sheriff's Office responded. While officers were taking his statement, other officers went to the residence at 371 SR 180 looking for his dad, Bryan Rothe (Bryan).

Wesley heard the gunshots and he, his sister, and the other officers went running toward the house. Wesley indicated that he saw two officers firing their weapons into the house. Wesley indicated that his mother, Tonya Rothe (Tonya) was "almost getting in the way" so he and sister went to get her away. Wesley indicated that Tonya was on the left side of the tree in the yard.

As Wesley turned to run toward the residence at 371 SR 180, he heard his dad yell something about being hit. Wesley indicated that officers were still firing when Wesley got to the fence.

Wesley stated that after the gunshots, one officer put Tonya in handcuffs. SA North asked if Tonya was part of the altercation that had taken place with the people from the tow yard. Wesley stated that he didn't know, but that she had gone with the officers to the residence to locate Bryan. Wesley heard Tonya screaming as the gunshots were heard.

Taryn Rothe:

According to Taryn, the tow truck driver continued to taunt her and her brother, and they attempted to get the deputy to make him stop. Taryn then heard what she thought was one shot. She and her brother then ran to the back house. When she got to the end of the green trailer at 393 SR 180, she saw three deputies standing shoulder to shoulder shooting into the residence at 371 SR. 180. She could not see her dad. Her mom started screaming from behind the deputies in the yard near the big tree. Taryn believed her dad was inside the residence. Taryn entered the backyard through the big gate her mom and the deputies went through. She then heard her dad screaming in pain.

Taryn stated that one of the deputies handcuffed her mom and she understood why. Both Taryn and her brother were standing with her mom when she was handcuffed. The deputies were staggered together just off the sidewalk in front of the main entrance. At some point, the deputies went inside the residence. Taryn stated she was trying to keep her mom from seeing what happened. Taryn was unable to hear what the deputies were saying amongst themselves. She said that when the deputies were firing, they either emptied their magazines or were very close in emptying their magazines. She stated all three deputies were shooting at the same time. Taryn did not see her dad shooting.

Tonya Rothe:

Tonya said the police arrived and took all of the Rothe's information and then told the daughter to go back to the house to get Bryan. According to Tonya, Bryan had stated that he wasn't coming back out because he thought things would get started again, but the police had said that nothing would happen because they were there.

Tonya stated that the police then went back toward the back house, at the fence, and told Bryan that he was under arrest. Tonya stated, "they all were fighting, why was Bryan the only one that was going to go?" Tonya said that Bryan said no and then the police tased Bryan, and Bryan ran back into the house. Tonya then said, "I'm still back by the fence and the next thing I know, shooting, he was at the door at the mesh screen, and then they started shooting."

Tonya said that she had looked up and Bryan had a gun, but she didn't believe that he had fired it. Tonya said that "all three of them started shooting" and that Bryan went down to his knees and Tonya heard Bryan say, "you got me" or "you shot me." Tonya said that Bryan fell over and she went to run to him but was then arrested by one of the officers that fired his weapon. Tonya was told to stay back by the fence with her kids that had come back after the shooting, until they put her in the cruiser.

Tonya said she saw the officers doing chest compressions on Bryan. The ambulance arrived and Tonya heard somebody say that they "pronounced him at 3:57." Tonya clarified that Bryan had been holding a rifle in the position as if to fire. Tonya could not recall any of the officers telling Bryan to drop his rifle or put it down. Tonya did not know how many gunshots she heard but said "a lot."

Deputy Weaver:

While searching for the glasses I heard [REDACTED] mark on the radio taser deployment. I began running to the back of the residence. As I rounded the corner of the front trailer, I observed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in shooting positions approximately 50 yards away from me. [REDACTED] was off to the right, and [REDACTED] was in front of me. [REDACTED] were aiming toward the front door of the trailer that was perpendicular to the road but set approximately 100 yards from the road. While running toward [REDACTED] I heard, and observed, gunfire.

[REDACTED] let dispatch know that shots were fired. A female was off to the left screaming. I could hear a male groaning in pain. I had my service weapon drawn. The female was placed into wrist restraints and told to go to the rear of the property with her family members.

The three of us, [REDACTED] and I stacked up and slowly approached the doorway of the residence. I told [REDACTED] was going to approach the right front corner of the porch to see if I could see the suspect and the weapon. When I looked into the doorway, I observed the barrel of a rifle laying in the entryway of the door frame behind the screen door. The main door to the residence was open. I observed a male laying down in close proximity to the weapon. I relayed the information to the other Deputies then retreated back to the stack due to the weapon pointing in the direction I was.

[REDACTED] asked if I could tell if the suspect was touching the weapon, but I was not able to on my first approach, so I re-approached and looked. I did not see the suspect touching the weapon. I relayed that information as I retreated back to the stack. Deputies then began moving into the porch area of the residence. Commands were given for the suspect to not touch the weapon.

[REDACTED] opened the door and removed the weapon while I was holding security on the suspect. I informed the other Deputies I did not see any other weapons around the suspect. [REDACTED] then moved to the suspect and began life saving measures. [REDACTED] said he needed an IFAK (individual first aid kit). I turned around and ran toward my cruiser. As I was running toward my cruiser Deputy Woodbridge was approaching us. I immediately told him we needed an IFAK and turned around and began running toward his cruiser as well.

Deputy Woodbridge was able to find his IFAK but I did not locate mine. We ran back to [REDACTED] began placing gauze on the wounds of the suspect and holding pressure. While [REDACTED] was applying the gauze Green Township EMS arrived on scene and took over life saving measures.

Deputies assisted with loading the suspect on to the cot, and also assisted with getting the cot through the yard and driveway to the waiting ambulance.

Statement:

[REDACTED] and I made contact with the suspect at the edge of his fenced in front yard. There were two small dogs and one medium sized dog that began barking at our arrival. The suspect asked his wife, the original female I had spoken to, to take the dogs into the residence. The female attempted but was unable to corral the dogs into the house, so they remained running free inside the fence. [REDACTED] and I remained on the outside of the fenced area, toward OH-180 while the suspect remained on the inside, just across the fence from us. I observed no visible injuries to the suspect from the previous altercation. [REDACTED] then initiated contact with the suspect. [REDACTED] requested ID from the suspect, who complied with this request.

After having Dispatch run the suspect for wants and warrants by his driver's license number [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] asked him his version of events.

The suspect then stated the same reasons for the argument as Group 2 had, that is to say, the argument had stemmed from Group 1 pulling into the driveway on Group 2's, as well as the suspect's property. [REDACTED] asked the suspect if there were any threats made during this argument that caused the suspect to fear for his safety. The suspect stated that there were not. [REDACTED] then asked the suspect what had caused him to start punching people. The suspect stated that, while he was in an argument with one of the males from Group 1, another male began to "flank" him, and so he punched the male that was in front of him. After punching the first male, the other male subject from Group 1 tackled the suspect to the ground. The suspect stated "that should be on the video" or words to that effect, to which [REDACTED] replied, "That happened after you started punching people" or words to that effect.

At this point [REDACTED] asked if he could step into the fenced front yard with the suspect. The suspect replied "No." At this point there was probable cause based on the statements from Group 1, the injuries to the male in Group 1, the admission of the suspect and the video footage, to place the suspect under arrest for assault. [REDACTED] advised the suspect that he was under arrest and the suspect stated "That ain't happening today" and then turned to flee toward the residence.

Allowing the suspect to flee into the residence carries inherent risk. If [REDACTED] and I allowed the suspect to get into the residence, the suspect could have retrieved a weapon, or barricaded himself inside the residence. With these risks in mind, [REDACTED] and I both drew and deployed our issued Taser 7s in an effort to stop the subject from fleeing a lawful arrest. Each Taser 7 contains two cartridges. Each cartridge contains two probes. I fired both of my cartridges, as did [REDACTED] for a total of four cartridges and eight probes. I observed at least two probes make contact with the suspect, but the Tasers did not achieve the desired neuromuscular incapacitation. The suspect ignored these probes and continued to flee toward the residence. I then said "Well, now he is getting resisting arrest" or words to that effect. At this point, [REDACTED] opened a gate along the fenceline and myself and [REDACTED] began to pursue the suspect on foot.

[REDACTED] was running toward the residence, however I was moving at a walking pace, attempting to keep the three aforementioned dogs in my field of view as they were unleashed and running freely in the fenced area. I was doing this as I have personal experience of being attacked by a dog in the line of duty. That attack caused a substantial laceration on my leg and required medical treatment in the ER. While I was watching these dogs the female that I first spoke with, the suspect's wife, stated "don't shoot my dogs." to which I responded "If they come at us we'll have to handle them" or words to that effect.

After this exchange of words I heard a loud yell. I am unsure at this time who yelled, or what they said. After hearing this yell I looked toward the front door of the residence. I observed the suspect, who had already made it back inside the home, opening the front screen door of the residence and standing in the threshold of the doorway. I saw in the suspect's hands what appeared to be a long firearm, meaning either a rifle or a shotgun. The suspect then brought the weapon to bear in the direction of myself and [REDACTED]. This created an imminent deadly threat of serious bodily harm or death to myself, [REDACTED] and all other persons in the vicinity. At some point during this time I drew my service weapon. Due to the risk of imminent deadly harm to all parties on scene, there was no time to issue verbal commands to the suspect. Attempting verbal commands at this point in time would have created greater risk to myself, [REDACTED].

I moved off-line from the position I was in, to my right in order to clear [REDACTED] from my line of fire, as he was almost directly in front of me when this engagement began. I then began to return fire in the direction of the suspect. Neither myself, nor [REDACTED] was able to take cover as, being in the front yard of the residence, there was no cover to be found that was near enough to be effectively utilized. I was some distance from the suspect, I would estimate about 15-20 yards during this engagement. I fired 17 rounds toward the suspect, one entire magazine, aiming center mass as my training has taught me. I continued firing through all 17 rounds as the suspect was still up, pointing a weapon at myself and [REDACTED] and the suspect was still a deadly threat. As my weapon went to slide lock, I observed the suspect falling back into the residence. I performed an emergency reload and, while doing so, yelled "Get out [REDACTED]" meaning for him to fall back toward my location. As I no longer observed the suspect posing a deadly threat I did not fire any rounds out of my second magazine. Both myself as well as [REDACTED] marked on the radio "shots fired" and I then marked again stating "send everyone."

At this point I moved forward to the left of [REDACTED] and I asked if the other had been struck by gunfire and each in turn confirmed that neither of us had. By this time Deputy Weaver had ran to our position. The suspect's wife, obviously distraught, was screaming. [REDACTED] then said "somebody get her cuffed" and Deputy Weaver handcuffed the suspect's wife. I then called out to the suspect several times saying phrases like "Do not move" and "If you touch that gun you're going to get shot again" or words to that effect, but received no response. I then took point, meaning I took the lead position, with [REDACTED] slightly behind me and to my right. Deputy Weaver was then behind and slightly to the right of [REDACTED] I then began a slow approach toward the residence, observing that the screen door had closed behind the suspect when he fell. There was also what appeared to be a small deck in the front of the residence with steps leading up to the screen door. Around this time dispatch marked and asked if we needed a "29" (ambulance) dispatched. [REDACTED] replied "yes please." I then marked on the radio "stage them" as the scene was not yet secure.

Once I was about five yards from the screen door, which was made entirely of a metal mesh, I could observe the suspect lying on his side. I called out again saying "do not move." [REDACTED] then called out "can you hear us" but again we received no response. I then asked Deputy Weaver if he could see the gun from his position. Deputy Weaver stated that he could not. I then said to Deputy Weaver "turn your flashlight on and see if you can see the gun" or words to that effect. Deputy Weaver moved to the right of my position and stated that he could see the firearm but that it was pointed to where he was standing and he moved back behind [REDACTED] [REDACTED] then said "I have a shield in my car. We're going to hold here." Knowing that any sort of shotgun or rifle would have the handguns that myself and the other Deputies were armed with completely outmatched, I did not want to sacrifice an extra firearm if the suspect began shooting again while one of the other Deputies attempted to retrieve a shield. With this in mind I asked Deputy Weaver if he could see if the suspect's hand was on the firearm. Deputy Weaver returned to his position to the right of me and stated that "It does not look like he's touching the gun" or words to that effect.

At this time I heard what appeared to be almost a snoring sound come from the suspect. Through my experience with severely injured persons I knew this to mean that the suspect was likely incapacitated. I said "He's down hard" and proceeded to move toward the front of the residence. [REDACTED] paused to put on nomex gloves to render aid to the suspect. I then said "If you're gloved up, holster, let Weaver take your place and get behind us" or words to that effect. Once Deputy Weaver was stacked on me we approached the screen door, I opened it, and I retrieved the firearm, which appeared to be similar to an AR-15 type weapon. Once this firearm had been removed, Deputy Weaver said "I don't see any other firearms." [REDACTED] then moved into the residence and began attempting lifesaving measures on the suspect, who was unresponsive.

Statement:

We made contact with Mr. Rothe and a female in their front yard. There were also several dogs running around the yard. A fence with a closed gate separated us. I asked Mr. Rothe what happened. Mr. Rothe told me that the other party had trespassed on his land so he was going to push their vehicle off his property with a tractor. Mr. Rothe further stated that he then got into an argument with the other party and felt he was being "flanked from two corners" so he "took one". I interpreted that he "took one" as meaning that's when he hit the victim. Mr. Rothe said he was tackled after. I asked Mr. Rothe what words were being exchanged, or if threats were made. Both he and the female stated "no". I told Mr. Rothe I had watched the video and that it showed him punching the other male. He said the male was yelling at him; I asked if he knew what he was yelling. He stated he didn't know.

I then opened the fence and began to chase after Mr. Rothe. I lost sight of him as he entered the home. The female began yelling for us to not shoot her dogs. I requested that she tries to get her dogs. As soon as I finished my request, I saw Mr. Rothe in the doorway of the house. Mr. Rothe was standing in a bladed, shooting stance with a rifle raised and pointed right at me. The rifle was in his right hand with his left hand supporting the rifle. I thought I was going to be killed. I thought [REDACTED] was going to be killed. I worried the victims and other involved parties from the assault would be killed. I knew my body armor was not rated to stop rifle rounds. I was in an open yard with no cover and no ability to retreat safely. I felt severely outgunned in terms of firepower, protection and having to react to Mr. Rothe's action. I've been taught that action is faster than reaction. I instinctively drew my sidearm and began firing to save my life, [REDACTED] life, and the public's life. Mr. Rothe was also firing. I am not sure who fired first. Due to the immediacy of the threat, there was no chance to give orders or

Based on the totality of circumstances of video evidence presented, victim's statements and Mr. Rothe's statement that no threats were made, probable cause was established to effect an arrest for assault. Mr. Rothe had his hand placed on the opening gate to keep it closed. I asked Mr. Rothe if I could step into the yard and he said "no". I told Mr. Rothe he was under arrest. Mr. Rothe responded "that ain't gonna happen today. You'll send me a thing." Mr. Rothe, who had been facing me, then turned towards his house and began taking steps further to his house. This escalated the situation to non-compliance and active resistance. Based on my training and experience, given the fence separating us, I decided the Taser would be the best tool to affect the arrest and stop his resistance. As I unholstered my Taser, Mr. Rothe began running toward the house, resisting arrest. I deployed two cartridges from my Taser [REDACTED] did the same. Mr. Rothe stumbled and yelled, but neuromuscular incapacitation was not achieved. Mr. Rothe continued running toward the house.

try reasoning with Mr. Rothe. I aimed center mass as training dictates. I fired until Mr. Rothe fell to the ground and was no longer a threat. I fired to protect myself, [REDACTED] and other law enforcement responding and to protect the public. At the time, I did not know how many rounds I fired.

Once Mr. Rothe had fallen back and collapsed, I radioed to dispatch that shots were fired. The female began walking towards the house as the dogs were running around the yard. I ordered her to get on the ground, but she did not. She continued walking around in a panic. Fearing she may try approaching the house to retrieve a firearm or interfere, I ordered "someone" to secure her in handcuffs. Deputy Weaver went and secured her towards the fence where we first spoke with Mr. Rothe. [REDACTED] and I moved to better positioning. Given I did not know many rounds I fired, I reloaded my firearm and retained the magazine. Deputy Weaver joined us. I asked [REDACTED] if he was okay and checked myself the best I could for injuries. Deputy Weaver repositioned himself to try getting a better angle to see where the gun was. He reported the gun was laying on the ground, pointed towards him near a dog that was sitting at the doorway. Dispatch asked if they should send an ambulance. I requested they send one, but to "stage" them. This is standard protocol until law enforcement can ensure the scene is safe and the threat no longer exists. This was done to protect EMS

I called out several times asking if Mr. Rothe could hear us. He did not respond. I first planned to have us approach the house with a shield in the event Mr. Rothe continued fighting or tried to ambush us. Deputy Weaver repositioned himself again and reported the gun was not in Mr. Rothe's hand. I then heard a "gurgle". The gurgle, commonly referred to as a "death gurgle", suggests serious injury. I holstered my firearm and began putting on gloves to begin rendering aid. [REDACTED] and Weaver then made a tactical approach into the residence with me in the back. [REDACTED] continued giving commands for Mr. Rothe not to move. [REDACTED] picked up the rifle which was laying in the doorway, pointed towards the front door. I took possession of the rifle and placed it outside of the residence, still within eyesight of other deputies for scene preservation.

Once inside, I began looking over Mr. Rothe. I noticed blood on the floor. I requested a deputy to get an IFAK to begin life saving measures. I asked [REDACTED] for his knife to remove his shirt to find the source of the bleeding. Mr. Rothe was still taking short breaths. I cut off Mr. Rothe's shirt and began checking for gunshot wounds. I found one gunshot wound on his stomach. I applied a gauze pad to his stomach and applied pressure to control bleeding to try saving Mr. Rothe's life. Deputy Woodbridge arrived and used shears to remove Mr. Rothe's pants to continue checking for injuries. He also performed a "blood sweep" to check for location of other injuries. Deputy Woodbridge found an additional wound to Mr. Rothe's forearm. Green Twp EMS then arrived responded in to the scene once it was deemed safe for them to do so.
