FEEBLEMINDED CHILD—INMATE OF CHILDREN'S HOME MAINTAINED BY TWO COUNTIES—COUNTY FROM WHICH CHILD COMMITTED TO STATE'S CHARGE, LIABLE FOR SUPPORT BY EXPRESS PROVISION OF STATUTE.

SYLLABUS:

Where a child is committed to the Fairmount Children's Home in Stark County and later committed by the Juvenile Court of said county to the state institution for the feeble-minded, by the express terms of Section 1815-12, General Code, the county of Stark is liable for the support of said child, notwithstanding said child was committed to said home from Columbiana County.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, December 26, 1930.

Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices, Columbus, Ohio.

GENTLEMEN:—In your recent communication you request my opinion upon the following:

“The Fairmount Children's Home is situated in Stark County; it is a district children's home, supported by Stark and Columbiana Counties. When the Juvenile Judge of Stark County commits children from said home to the state institution for feeble-minded and such children were originally committed to the district children's home from Columbiana County—

Question: Under the provisions of Section 1815-12, G. C., which county,
