FIELD CASE SUPPLEMENT REPORT

CASE# 2024-00016109

NARRATIVE

On January 23, 2024, I was advised by [REDACTED] that his 2004 Ford F-150, red in color, LP [REDACTED] had been parked in the driveway at his house ([REDACTED]), had been struck by gunfire during this incident. He said that he did not initially notice the same. I observed two (2) suspected bullet defects in the left front quarter panel and another suspected defect in the area where the driver's door connects to the frame on the inside. He said that the driver's tire also had a suspected bullet defect and was flat; the tire had been changed and he no longer had the old tire. I documented the damage on my WCS and conferred with Sgt. Schroeder #9249 and Sgt. Divis (CCSO) c/w a process tow. Mr. [REDACTED] initially consented to a process tow and then declined.

Later on that evening, I was advised by CCSO Sgt. Divis that Mr. [REDACTED] later gave consent to have the vehicle process towed to the CCSO. The vehicle was process towed to Lot 2 by 4A35 by St. Clair VIU #1439 and a Consent to Remove Vehicle Form was completed and uploaded to Evidence.com.
