 Narrative

On the listed date and time, Officers received a call at the CPD call center. The victim advised that he was interviewed by the news out of the recent Officer involved shooting. The victim made a statement that he understood the individual who was shot out of that shooting needed to be stopped, even though he might disagree with the means that were used. The suspect began texting the victim and the victim attempted to clarify his statement and engaged the suspect in a conversation. The suspect began using racial slurs and become nasty, so the victim stopped responding. The suspect then sent a final text calling the victim more racial slurs and then made a statement, "I think about killing all you racists. I'll kill myself and take you all with me." The victim advised that he is fearful something could happen. The victim was advised that a report would be taken documenting the incident.
