ATTORNEY GENERAL OF OHIO

CASE NO. CI-84-4-232

Plaintiff,

v.

COAKLEY-PIZZA OIL AND GAS, et al.

Defendants.

ENTRY

Plaintiff's charges in contempt of court having been filed on May 12, 1986 and hearing having been held on said charges on June 23, 1986, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. Defendants have failed to pay to the division of oil and gas the civil penalty as required by this court's judgment of September 9, 1985.

2. Defendants are in contempt of court and said contempt is blatant.

3. Defendants shall pay a fine of $7500.00 to this court for its contempt, however, the necessity for paying such fine shall be deferred for nine months. If the defendants pay the original judgment on or before March 23, 1987, the fine shall be removed

4. Defendants shall pay the original judgment for civil penalty as follows:

a) an initial payment of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00).

b) the balance of Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500.00) shall be paid in nine monthly payments of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month. Said payments shall begin on July 1.

c) payments shall be made by certified check or money order payable to the Treasurer of State and forwarded to: Fiscal Section, Division of Oil and Gas, Fountain Square, Bldg. A, Columbus, Ohio 43224.

5) Defendants shall pay the costs of the hearing on Plaintiff's Charges in Contempt.

Case No. CI 84-4-232

DECISION AND JOURNAL ENTRY

ON REDUCTION OF CIVIL PENALTY

This matter came on to be heard upon defendant's October 15, 1985 motion to reduce the civil penalty previously levied by this court.

On October 21, 1985, plaintiff filed a motion contra and an attached memorandum.

On September 9, 1985, the court imposed a penalty of $10,000 jointly and severally against defendants. After review of the file and the arguments of counsel, the court shall not rescind the full penalty. The court shall reduce the penalty to $7500 jointly and severally against the defendants.

It is so ORDERED.
