JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff, State of Ohio, through counsel Attorney General of Ohio, Michael DeWine, having reasonable cause to believe that violations of Ohio's consumer protection laws have occurred, brings this action in the public interest and on behalf of the State of Ohio under the authority vested in the Attorney General by R.C. 1345.07.
2. The actions of Defendants Legal Aid Services, Inc. and Floyd G. Belsito ("Defendants"), hereinafter described, have occurred in the State of Ohio, in Delaware County and in other counties in Ohio and, as set forth below, are in violation of the Consumer Sales Practices Act ("CSPA"), R.C. 1345.01 et seq., its Substantive Rules, Ohio Administrative Code ("O.A.C.") 109:4-3-01 et seq., and the Debt Adjuster's Act ("DAA"), R.C. 4710.01 et seq.

3. Jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action lies with this Court pursuant to R.C. 1345.04 of the CSPA.
4. This Court has venue to hear this case pursuant to Ohio Civ. R. 3(B)(3), in that Delaware County, Ohio is where Defendants conducted some of the transactions complained of herein.

12. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in the business of soliciting, offering for sale, and selling mortgage loan modification services to consumers.

13. Defendants represented to consumers that Legal Aid Services, Inc. was a law firm that would provide professional services to consumers in order to help consumers avoid foreclosure.
14. Defendant Belsito, a California-licensed attorney who was ordered inactive by the State Bar of California, has been ineligible to practice law in California since March 2, 2015.
15. Defendant Belsito was never licensed to practice law in Ohio.
16. Defendants are “suppliers” as that term is defined in R.C. 1345.01(C) as Defendants were, at all times relevant herein, engaged in the business of effecting consumer transactions either directly or indirectly by soliciting and selling goods or services to consumers in Delaware County and other counties in the State of Ohio for purposes that were primarily for personal, family, or household use within the meaning specified in R.C. 1345.01(A) and (D).
17. Defendants engage in “debt adjusting” as defined in R.C. 4710.01(B) in that Defendants, at all times relevant herein, held themselves out as providing services to debtors in the management of debts by effecting the adjustment, compromise, or discharge of any account, note, or other indebtedness of the debtor.

19. Defendants held themselves out as being a law firm that would provide services to consumers, despite employing no lawyers who were licensed in Ohio.
20. Defendants induced consumers to trust them by creating the impression that consumers were getting professional services associated with legal counsel who were legally permitted to represent them, when such was not the case.

21. Defendants' mail solicitations and other written correspondence with consumers included statements that led consumers to believe that Defendants were affiliated with the federal government and its programs for struggling homeowners.
22. Defendants accepted money from consumers for the purpose of obtaining mortgage loan modifications for the consumers.
23. Defendants charged Ohio consumers initial fees in amounts of $3,000 or more, prior to the initiation of any services.

27. Consumers who did not receive the service of having their mortgage loans modified requested refunds of the money they had paid to Defendants.
28. Defendants failed to provide full refunds to consumers for whom they did not deliver the promised outcome.
29. Defendants failed to fully refund the money consumers paid for undelivered services, despite requests from consumers to either deliver the services or make full refunds.
30. Consumers who did business with the Defendants and never received loan modifications or refunds were left in worse financial situations than the consumers were in before doing business with Defendants.
