

Teri Ruslander is currently the Elder Services Coordinator with the Grove City Division of Police. The position was created to assist the elderly in the community who have been a victim of a crime or need assistance with resources for everyday living. Teri retired from the Grove City Division of Police after 33 years. She spent the last 24 years as a detective. She has worked with elderly victims throughout her career as an officer and a detective. Teri spent several years on a Federal Taskforce with the IRS investigating Financial Crimes. Teri has made presentations throughout the state on Elder Financial Exploitation and Abuse. Teri has trained individuals on Elder abuse for OPOTA, the Franklin County Prosecutor's office, Ohio Attorney General Office conferences, other law enforcement departments, and other conferences. Teri is currently on the Board of Directors of Ohio Coalition of Adult Protective Services (OCAPS). Teri has been an adjunct instructor at Ohio University since 2002. Teri has taught numerous classes online and in the classroom as part of the Law Enforcement Technology Degree.