

APPENDIX A

Statutory Provisions Exempting Records from the Ohio Public Records Act or Declaring Records Confidential

The chart below is designed to be a helpful tool in identifying specific statutory exemptions to public records disclosure. This list is not exhaustive and does not include exemptions that may exist in federal law. In addition, the list does not include exemptions listed in the Public Records Act, R.C. 149.43, which are addressed elsewhere in the Sunshine Laws Manual.

Many of the exemptions apply to specific types of records, in specific circumstances, and only to specific public offices. It is recommended that public offices and officials consult with their designated attorney and/or conduct independent legal research to determine if these exemptions apply or to determine if there are additional applicable exemptions in Ohio or federal law.

The statute citations in the left column are hyperlinked to the full text of the statute. These can also be found by searching the Ohio Revised Code at <https://codes.ohio.gov/ohio-revised-code>.
