CRIME VICTIMS SECTION ANNUAL REPORT 2006

JIM PETRO
ATTORNEY GENERAL

STATE OF OHIO
www.ag.state.oh.us

On the front cover: The more than 80 employees of the Ohio Attorney General's Crime Victims Services section often spend time meeting with crime victims advocates and law enforcement agencies across Ohio. This face-to-face contact ensures that the Crime Victims Services section is in touch with the special concerns and needs of the men and women who assist victims of crime rebuild their lives. The section also hosts training programs to bring victims' advocates and law enforcement agencies up to date on the latest developments and services offered by the Ohio Attorney General's Office.

Dear Fellow Ohioan:

I'm very proud of the hard work and dedication of the men and women of the Crime Victims Services Section in fiscal year 2006. The section processed nearly 12 percent more claims in 2006 compared to the previous year, yet reduced the response time for a decision by almost 10 percent.

My office paid out $14.5 million in compensation this year to victims of crime which is more than a 38 percent increase from the previous year.

Embracing technology, streamlining the organization, and promoting efficiency have yielded measurable returns for Ohioans from our Crime Victims Services Section. Administrative costs have been reduced by almost $500,000 since 2000, while the response time for processing claims has continuously fallen, allowing eligible victims to receive assistance in record time.

Under our Crime Victims Assistance Program, we continued to administer millions of dollars in grant funding to victim service providers.

This report highlights the programs my office offers to help victims of crime on the road to recovery.

Sincerely,

MISSION STATEMENT

CRIME VICTIMS SERVICES SECTION OFFICE OF THE OHIO ATTORNEY GENERAL

Our mission is to help victims recover from the effects of violent crime by providing financial assistance to victims, families of victims, and victim service providers to alleviate the economic and emotional burdens of victimization.

In executing this mission we shall:

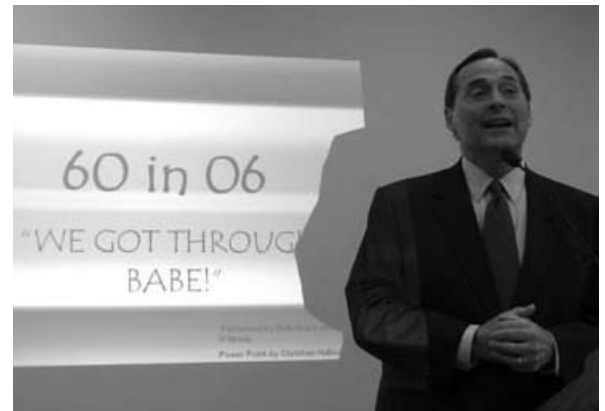

Investigate crime victim compensation claims in an objective and timely manner while treating victims and their families with respect, dignity, and compassion;

Work with the Ohio Court of Claims to maintain a positive balance between the interests of victims, the integrity of the judicial process, and the solvency of the Crime Victims Reparations Fund;

Provide clear and concise communication to victims, their advocates, the Court of Claims, and the general public;

Promote public awareness of crime victim services, including the Ohio Crime Victims Compensation Program, and remove the barriers of accessibility to victims so they have a greater opportunity to receive the services available to aid in their recovery; and Recognize and appreciate the contributions and achievements of all members of the Crime Victims Services team and treat each other with respect and dignity at all times.

INTRODUCTION

No one ever asks to be a victim of crime. People are victimized by random chance or because they were acquainted with or related to a person who commits a criminal act.

When a person commits a crime, from a legal perspective, that person acts out against the state or the community, and the victim of the crime is simply someone who happened to be caught up in events outside of his or her control. That is why, when the police arrest a criminal and that person is charged with a crime, the indictment reads "State v. ..." rather than "Victim v. ..."

Before there was a state or a government, it was the responsibility of the victim or his or her family and friends to seek retribution or "justice." In fact, the concept of a crime being different from a civil wrong is a relatively new idea for civilized society. Of course, over time, civil society grew and flourished, laws were written, police forces were created and the concept of the state catching criminals and preventing crime was founded.

For a long time, unfortunately, there was little thought for the victims of crime. The rights of the accused to a fair trial and humane treatment were developed and codified, but the place for the victim in the criminal justice process became secondary to the need for the protection of the defendant's rights and the rehabilitation of the convicted.

Society seemed to forget that the innocent victims of crime were asked to bear terrible physical, psychological and financial burdens alone. Victims may have insurance, but insurance does not pay for lost wages of family members who attend the trial of the person accused of killing a sister or daughter, for example. Insurance might replace the window broken by an intruder, but it does not pay for the cost of a security system that allows a rape victim to feel safe at night. The victims or their survivors were left to fend for themselves.

Crime victims were the missing pieces of the criminal justice puzzle.

Eventually, victims, survivors and their advocates began to demand a place in the picture. The criminal justice system and the legislatures heard their pleas and crafted laws that not only ensured that victims would be active participants in the investigatory and judicial processes, but also that they would be compensated for their losses.

CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION THE CRIME VICTIM CLAIM PROCESS

INTAKE UNIT

When claims first enter the office, they are processed by the Intake Unit, which examines the claims for mandatory elements, compares them with claims already on file to see if they are related to previously-filed claims, and enters initial data into the system. The Intake Unit also makes telephone calls or mails letters to claimants and others to seek details about the requested compensation. From there, the claim goes simultaneously to the Field Unit and the Economic Loss Unit.

FIELD UNIT

A preliminary criminal check is completed on all victims and claimants to verify that within the ten year period before their victimization, or at any time afterwards, they have not: engaged in violent felonious conduct, engaged in drug trafficking, been convicted of a misdemeanor domestic violence or child endangering offense; or been convicted of a felony. A person who has one of these disqualifying events cannot be awarded reparations. However, in a homicide situation, in spite of these disqualifying events in the parent's history, the minor dependent children of the deceased are still eligible for dependent economic loss and counseling expenses, where the actions of the deceased did not contribute to the crime.

The Field Unit obtains reports and other information from law enforcement and other agencies such as coroners' offices, children's service agencies, and prosecutors, regarding the incident. This information is necessary in determining certain eligibility requirements. Some of the relevant issues may be whether there was contributory misconduct by the victim/claimant; whether law enforcement was notified of the crime; whether that notification was made within 72 hours of the incident or whether there was good cause for a delayed report; who was present at the time of the crime, and what each person told law enforcement or whether the victim and/or claimant fully cooperated with law enforcement authorities. Often, follow-up information needs to be gathered from local agencies, or from the victims/claimants themselves, for clarification.

When the Field Unit has gathered all relevant information about the underlying crime, a field report is prepared summarizing the information received, and the claim moves on toward the Legal Unit.

ECONOMIC LOSS UNIT

The Economic Unit gathers information and makes mathematical calculations regarding the net economic loss that resulted from the crime. All medical, counseling, and other eligible expenses are verified, taking into consideration any potential collateral sources such as health and auto insurance, Bureau of Workers Compensation benefits, Medicaid eligibility, Medicare benefits, auto insurance, etc. If work loss resulted from the crime, it is also verified, taking into consideration potential collateral sources such as benefits from the Ohio Department of Jobs and Family Services, the Social Security Administration, the Bureau of Workers Compensation, disability benefits, etc. Out-of-pocket losses for other items are also examined. These may include mileage to and from court and doctor/counselor appointments; reimbursement for items held for evidence purposes by law enforcement; expenses for crime scene clean-up; or costs to pay someone to perform household chores victims would have done themselves had the crime not occurred.

Once all relevant information is received, reviewed, and analyzed, the claim moves on towards the Legal Unit.

LEGAL UNIT

After the reviews are completed, the claim is assigned to an assistant attorney general who examines all of the information provided by the other units, analyzes any particular legal issues that are present, and prepares a Finding of Fact and Decision. If an award is granted, payment is rendered to the applicant and/or providers of service to the victim as appropriate, by the Finance Unit. If an applicant does not agree with a Finding of Fact and Decision, within 30 days of the decision, an applicant may file a Request for Reconsideration to have the claim reviewed once again by the office. The Attorney General has 60 days to conduct that additional review and render a Final Decision on the claim. If an applicant is only questioning a portion of the Finding of Fact and Decision, undisputed items of economic loss can be paid while the review process is pending.

If the applicant does not agree with the Final Decision, within 30 days the applicant may file an appeal to have the claim heard before a three commissioner panel of the Court of Claims of Ohio. Arguments and new evidence, including testimony, may be presented at the panel hearing. The commissioners then render a written decision, which may be appealed to a judge of the Court of Claims, if desired. No new evidence can be presented at that final judicial hearing, however, the judge may overturn a panel's decision only in those instances where the panel's decision is against the manifest weight of the evidence or is contrary to law.

FINANCE UNIT

Once an award is determined, the claim goes to the Finance Unit for payment. If all applicants in a particular claim send in a document indicating that they will not be seeking reconsideration, the Finance Unit can process invoices and vouchers for payment immediately. If waivers are not received from each applicant, payment is delayed to give those applicants an opportunity to dispute the award, before the money is distributed, but will be processed 40 days after the award decision was made. If any medical or other service provider is not currently listed in Ohio's Central Accounting System (CAS), that provider must submit a W-9 tax form before payment can be made.

Compensation awards paid in Fiscal Year 2006 totaled nearly $14.5 million. The amount of the awards granted increased 38 percent from $10.5 million awarded in Fiscal Year 2005. The positive impact can be attributed to more decisions rendered over last fiscal year. The total number of awards paid increased 19 percent from 3,181 in Fiscal Year 2005 to 3,790 in Fiscal Year 2006. The following tables provide more details of the total. Streamlining the organization, encouraging forward thinking and promoting efficiency have yielded measurable returns for Ohioans. Since 2000, administrative costs have decreased by $483,485. Despite lowering administrative costs, the section continues to process a large number of claims in an efficient and timely manner.

CRIME VICTIMS SUBROGATION AND RESTITUTION UNIT

Ultimately, the financial loss should be born by the offender, and not by the victim or the state.

The Crime Victims Subrogation and Restitution Unit serves the public by holding offenders financially accountable for the economic costs of their crimes. This unit seeks to reimburse the Crime Victim Compensation Fund for monies paid out on the victim's behalf.

Ultimately, the financial loss should be born by the offender, and not by the victim or the state. This mission drives the Crime Victims Subrogation and Restitution Unit in its effort to maintain the integrity of the Crime Victim Compensation Fund, so that the fund can remain intact to meet the needs of tomorrow's victims. The compensation fund, while ample, is not unlimited. As such, the unit seeks to recover monies from offenders, insurance companies, and other liable parties to be returned to the fund.

The unit evaluates every claim in which compensation has been awarded and an offender identified. Once a decision is made to take collection action in a particular claim, the claim is "certified" to the Attorney General's Collections Enforcement Section, which houses the Subrogation and Restitution Unit. The unit then contacts offenders, insurance companies and attorneys to explain their legal reimbursement obligations. Sometimes, lawsuits are commenced as part of the collection process.

The Subrogation and Restitution Unit works with the courts, prosecutors, and other agencies to increase the number of cases where restitution is ordered, and to improve the effectiveness of the collection process. The overall goal remains the same: to hold offenders accountable for the financial loss caused to their victims, but to do so in a fair, uniform, and effective manner. During this fiscal year, the unit recovered $487,786 for the Crime Victims Compensation Fund

CRIME VICTIMS ASSISTANCE

Since its creation in 1985, the Crime Victims Assistance Division (CVA) has been responsible for allocating grant monies to private non-profit and government agencies that assist Ohio's victims of crime. Funding provided by CVA helps support direct victim services such as rape crisis centers, domestic violence shelters and criminal justice advocacy programs. Other services provided by CVA include TWO DAYS IN MAY, the annual conference for victim advocates providing training for those who assist victims in the aftermath of crime. Further training to victim service providers has been developed with the newest initiative, the Advocates Dedicated to Victim Assistance and Continuing Education (A.D.V.A.N.C.E.) Academy. This Academy provides continual training to victim advocates. It includes a week-long basic training for new staff working in the field of victim advocacy called Basic Advocacy Skills In Crime victim Services or B.A.S.I.C.S. Other courses have been developed and are offered from the Academy and include such topics as cultural diversity, outcome measures, testifying in court, victims' rights, and many more. Additionally, coordination of activities in Ohio for National Crime Victims' Rights Week is provided by this unit.

Federal Victims of Crime Act

The Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) was passed by Congress and signed into law by the President on October 12, 1984, and later amended by the Children's Justice and Assistance Act of 1986, the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988, the Justice Appropriations Act of 1994 and the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994. The original statute was the product of the President's Task Force on Victims of Crime. The Task Force concluded that the needs of crime victims could be adequately met only by federal, state, and local governments, in conjunction with the private sector, sharing the responsibility of providing victims assistance.

The Act established within the U.S. Treasury a separate account known as the Crime Victims Fund. The Fund is supported entirely by fines, penalty assessments, forfeited appearances and bail bonds collected by the federal government. The Attorney General of the United States is designated as the administrator of the Fund.

Services to Victims Advocates

The State Victims Assistance Act (SVAA) was passed by the Ohio Legislature and signed into law by the Governor on June 27, 1984. The Bill was one of several proposals made to address the needs and rights of victims of crime at the state level.

This Act established within the Office of the Ohio Attorney General, the Crime Victims Assistance Division (CVA). They are charged with two primary responsibilities:

1. To determine crime and delinquency victim service needs and policies and to exercise leadership in the improvement of victim programs in the State of Ohio.
2. To determine which victim assistance programs will receive state financial assistance from the Crime Victims Reparations Fund as appropriated by the Ohio General Assembly.

The SVAA also established the State Victims Assistance Advisory Board. The Board is appointed by the Attorney General and consists of sixteen members and four ex-officio members. It serves in an advisory capacity in determining victim service needs and in establishing policies that seek to improve the quality of victim service programs who receive funding. It is also charged with the responsibility of reviewing local victim assistance programs and to recommend which programs should receive financial assistance under the SVAA. Appendix D shows the distribution of SVAA and VOCA grants by county for the federal fiscal year (10/1/05 – 9/30/06).

The Application Process

The CVA Division distributes and makes available on-line in March of each year, “Guidelines and Application Procedures” for the Victims of Crime Act Grant Program and the State Victims Assistance Act Program. Applications are reviewed by staff and presented to the Advisory Board, who review each application and make funding recommendations. Final decisions as to recipients and funding levels are made by the Attorney General. Letters of Determination, Grant Awards and Acceptance forms are mailed to the approved recipients by September of each year.

The funding period is 12 months beginning October 1 and ending September 30. Grants under $5,000 may be disbursed by the CVA Division in lump sum payment and those more than $5,000 are typically disbursed in monthly payments. All funds must be expended before September 30.

Applicant Eligibility

To be eligible to receive funding, a new or existing Ohio non-profit or governmental program or organization must provide services that directly benefit individual victims of crime, and must meet the needs of the racial, ethnic and socioeconomic diversity of the community or region served.

Types of programs include, but are not limited to, rape crisis centers, domestic violence shelters, child abuse treatment facilities and other community based service organizations. In addition, public and non-profit organizations such as criminal justice agencies, faith based organizations, hospitals and emergency medical facilities and other state and local public agencies such as mental health service organizations, legal service agencies and public housing authorities are also eligible to receive funding with the stipulation that they include components within the organization specifically trained to provide direct service to victims of crime.

Funding and Reporting Requirements

Grant recipients must submit monthly and/or quarterly financial reports to the CVA Division and are required to maintain complete and accurate financial records which are subject to federal audit requirements in certain circumstances.

TWO DAYS IN MAY CONFERENCE

Attorney General Jim Petro’s annual Two Days in May Conference on Victim Assistance was held on May 23 and 24, 2006 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Columbus, Ohio. Approximately 1,400 people attended the conference representing many different professions. Participants were social workers, law enforcement agencies, attorneys, probation and parole departments, and many more.

This two-day conference which consisted of 50 workshops on a variety of topics dealing with victim issues such as stalking, sexual assault, childhood abuse, murder, domestic violence. Opening the conference was keynote speaker Paul Greenwood, Deputy District Attorney with the San Diego Prosecutor’s Office. Other keynote speakers included Kimberly Black Wisseman, Domestic Violence Counselor and survivor, and Mark Anthony Garrett, motivational speaker.

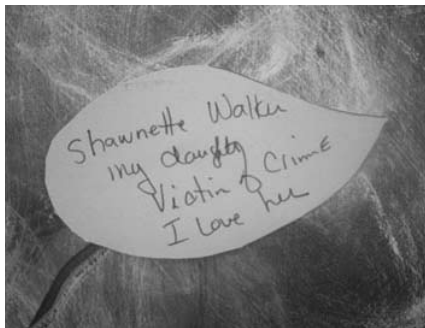

The Attorney General honored two Ohio crime victim advocates with the Special Achievement Award.

Jeannette Adkins, former Director of the Victim Assistance program in the Greene County Prosecutor's Office, and now Executive Director of the National Organization for Victim Assistance (NOVA); and Lori King, Victim Advocate for the Office of Victim Services of the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, were honored for their hard work and dedication in the field of victim advocacy. Also Promising Practice Awards were presented to the MADD (Mother's Against Drunk Driving) Minority Outreach Program, Ohio State Highway Patrol, and the Open Arms Shelter in Findlay, Ohio. These awards recognize projects that have enhanced an organization in order to provide better service to victims of crime in Ohio.

NATIONAL CRIME VICTIMS RIGHTS WEEK

During the entire year and especially during National Crime Victims' Rights Week (NCVRW), April 23-29, 2006, victim advocates set out to educate the community on victims' rights and available services. Tributes are also held that inspire and unite everyone to this very important cause. With increased awareness and through strength in unity, victim services not only are made more aware, but ideas for service improvements are shared.

In the past, the Ohio Attorney General's Office provided informational booths at events during NCVRW. However, this year, the office created the state's first annual Rally In Remembrance, to provide an opportunity for victim advocates to share their personal stories. Additionally, statewide victim assistance agencies were available to inform and educate the public on victim assistance services available.

Held at the Statehouse Atrium in downtown Columbus, the Rally In Remembrance was an all day event. The Rally's open-ended structure allowed for the public to take as long as they wanted in hearing victim testimonials and reading through victim assistance informational literature. Additionally, interactive self defense and drug-sniffing canine demonstrations captivated the attention of the audience while giving out more information on available victim services.

Demonstrating this year's theme, Strength in Unity, it was only through the donation of time and materials of our statewide victim service agencies that the Rally achieved its goals. These goals were to educate the public on victims' rights, services and safety, heightening awareness to the issues of crime victimization, and remembering those who have been victimized. The Rally In Remembrance is in its infancy but will continue to grow in order to further inspire the general public about victims' rights and services.

A.D.V.A.N.C.E. ACADEMY

Advocates Dedicated to Victim Assistance and Continuing Education

The A.D.V.A.N.C.E. Academy, which is the first of its kind in the state of Ohio, is a program designed to provide on-going training to victim advocates. The Academy will offer courses from the very basic for beginners to the very advanced for more experienced workers in the field.

The first planned project, the B.A.S.I.C.S. (Basic Advocacy Skills In Crime victim Services) program, was held on June 11-16, 2006 at the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy in London, Ohio. The B.A.S.I.C.S. is a week-long course geared towards advocates with 5 or less years of experience and offers 40 hours of baseline education such as court accompaniment, crisis intervention, legal advocacy, etc.

A second B.A.S.I.C.S. course is planned for September of 2006, and this project will continue into the new calendar year as well.

The application for attendance, along with some information regarding what A.D.V.A.N.C.E. and the B.A.S.I.C.S. are, can be found on the Attorney General's web site so that prospective students can access and download it. This course is offered free of charge. There are accommodations for 50 students in each B.A.S.I.C.S. class.

Classes generally run from 8:00am to 5:00pm, except on Friday when class will only be from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. There is a welcome dinner on Sunday, the opening day of the course. Some evening activities are planned, most notably, a tour of the facilities at Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (BCI & I) as well as a charter bus trip to the Prime Outlets at Jeffersonville. Friday will culminate the week with a luncheon and graduation ceremony.

Continuing Education Units from the Ohio Counselor and Social Worker Board have been approved for 30+ hours. For those students who do not have a degree or a license, this program has been approved by the National Advocate Credentialing Program (NACP) for 40 hours.

CRIME VICTIMS RIGHTS INFORMATION AND PUBLICATIONS

Picking Up the Pieces: Your Rights & Responsibilities as a Crime Victim

"Picking Up the Pieces" is a publication that identifies and explains the rights of crime victims in Ohio. It is written in an informal and easy to read format and provides the Ohio Revised Code Chapter and Section numbers for those wishing to research the laws of Ohio that govern the rights of crime victims. The publication is available in English and Spanish via on-line at www.ag.state.oh.us/online_publications/crime_victims_services/index.htm or by calling (800) 582-2877.

VINE

The Victim Information and Notification Everyday (VINE) statewide project is a free, anonymous, computer-based service that provides victims of crime with two important services: Information and Notification. The project is funded through a VOCA grant and is coordinated with the Buckeye State Sheriffs' Association, the Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys' Association, the Ohio Department of Youth Services (ODYS) and the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction (ODRC).

VINE is an automated telephone system that permits callers to stay informed about the status of an offender housed in a county jail, ODRC or ODYS facility. They can find out about the transfer, release, escape or death of an inmate, and the inmate's location. Callers may also register for automatic notification of this information via telephone, e-mail or pager. VINE links county sheriffs and statewide correctional facilities to make this information available 24 hours-a-day, 365 days-a-year. Anyone may call the toll-free VINE Hotline at (800) 770-0192, which is available in English and Spanish. The service electronically links all of Ohio's participating county courts, county jails, state prisons and juvenile facilities to the VINE National Call Center in Louisville, Kentucky.

IDENTITY THEFT VERIFICATION PASSPORT PROGRAM

Identity theft, which occurs when someone uses another's personal information to obtain credit or evade criminal liability, has quickly become one of the most common types of fraud. Victims can spend an enormous amount of time cleaning up the mess the thieves have made of their good name, and credit record. The Attorney General has brought together a coalition of agencies to help these victims, through a unique program called the Identity Theft Verification PASSPORT Program.

Under this programs, victims who report identify theft to local authorities are be given step-by-step information about how to alert creditors to fraudulent activity in their names as well as simple, fill-in-the-blank affidavits to send to credit bureaus and creditors. The cornerstone of PASSPORT is the card victims can show to creditors and law enforcement personnel establishing that they have been victimized.

Law enforcement agencies and creditors can verify the validity of the PASSPORT by calling (877) VERIFY-IT. Law enforcement will also be able to access all information provided during the application process, including the original police report, digitized fingerprint, photograph and signature of the victim through the Ohio Law Enforcement Gateway (OHLEG), a secure internet platform designed for and used by law enforcement for a number of confidential purposes.

Although the push to get information to law enforcement occurred mostly in FY 2005, that initiative continues, and the number of victims assisted continues to grow, as illustrated below.

The national interest in the PASSPORT Program lead to the Ohio Attorney General's s first National Conference on Identity Theft, held in Columbus on April 23-24, 2006. The event featured the PASSPORT Program and covered a wide range of issues including presentations on preventing, investigating and prosecuting this devastating crime. It also featured Bob Sullivan, MSNBC Interactive and Author as the Luncheon Speaker and Howard Schmidt, President and CEO R&H Security Consulting LLC as the Keynote Speaker. Attendees included members of law enforcement agencies and the financial and legal community from across the country. On April 24th, Attorney General Jim Petro accepted the March Fong Eu award from the National Notary Association, for his effort in creating the PASSPORT program which it called the most aggressive effort by law enforcement in the nation to address the recovery process of victims of identity theft. The association grants the award annually to an individual who did the most to improve the standards, image, quality and effectiveness of the office of notary public.

On September 16, 2006 House Bill 48 became effective. It provided legislative support for the Ohio Identity Theft Verification PASSPORT Program by requiring that law enforcement assist victims in obtaining a PASSPORT, and also enhanced the penalty for identity theft if the victim is elderly or disabled by increasing the penalty from a misdemeanor to a felony crime.

MISSING CHILDREN CLEARINGHOUSE

(Please note that the MCCH operates on a calendar year, not a fiscal year basis, so information below reflects 2005 statistics).

The Ohio Missing Children Clearinghouse is a central repository to coordinate and improve the availability of information on missing children. The Clearinghouse assists in searches, creates public awareness, and develops and disseminates educational information about missing and abducted children. It promotes Missing Children Day, May 25th of each year, and maintains a toll free hotline, (800) 325 5604, providing nationwide access, 7-days-a-week, 24-hours-a-day, 365 days a year.

The Clearinghouse provides local law enforcement and schools with child fingerprint ID cards. These cards, which are used at local events such as fairs) throughout the state, are available from the Attorney General’s Office and at no cost.

In 2005, the Clearinghouse received reports regarding 11,074 missing children, of which 10,683 children, or 96%, were recovered.

Amber Alert	34
Runaway	10,801
Family Abduction	146
Non-Family Abduction	5
Lost, Injured or Otherwise Missing	88
TOTAL	11,074

The public can help the recovery of missing children by subscribing to the Ohio Citizens Alert Network on Ohio’s Amber Plan web site, www.ohioamberplan.org. Subscribers are notified of missing children through text messages and e-mails that are sent when an Amber Alert is issued. Additionally, a downloadable screen saver featuring missing children and a desktop pop-up Amber Alert message are available. The MCCH web page provides information regarding Ohio missing children their photos and related issues, and has featured 1,105 children since its creation. This site can be accessed through the Ohio Attorney General’s web site, www.ag.state.oh.us

During 2005, 20 Amber Alerts were issued through the Missing Children Clearinghouse through OHLEG, the Ohio Law Enforcement Gateway, with all children recovered unharmed.

Because Amber Alerts are only issued under certain circumstances, there are situations where missing children are in danger, but the facts do not meet the Amber criteria. In those situations, the MCCH has the ability to go beyond the normal protocol when searching for missing children. A “Trucker’s Alert” can be issued with an Amber Alert or even when an Amber Alert is not issued. In 2005, 6 Trucker Alerts were issued.

In those situations, after a report is made to law enforcement, that agency determines that the Truckers Helping to Recover Ohio’s Missing Children advisory is warranted. The police or sheriff’s office then contacts the Ohio Missing Children Clearinghouse to issue the advisory. The MCCH will then broadcast by fax and e-mail the child’s information to participating trucking companies within a local or regional area requested by law enforcement. Trucking companies then post the information in their drivers’ lounges and dispatch offices, and include it in their dispatches. Participating private organizations include the Ohio Trucking Association, Mid-states Meat Association, Midwest Dairy Foods Association, Ohio Aggregates & Industrial Minerals association, Ohio Coal Association, Ohio Grocers Association, Ohio Lumbermen’s Association, Ohio Ready Mixed Concrete Association, Ohio Soft Drink association, and the Wholesale Beer and Wine Association of Ohio.

IMPROVING SERVICES TO VICTIMS THROUGH NEW INITIATIVES

60 IN '06

Prior to 2000, under the Crime Victim Compensation Program, the Attorney General made recommendations to a Single Commissioner of the Ohio Court of Claims, who would make the decision to grant or deny an applicant. That year, however, the program was transformed by statute such that the Attorney General made decisions regarding the granting or denial of crime victim compensation awards. The Court of Claims commissioners became, in effect, appellate hearing officers if claimants appealed from those decisions. The statute enacted at that time required that the Attorney General issue a decision within 120 days after receiving an application, although that deadline can be extended in writing R.C. 2743.59(E). Over the past few years, the Attorney General has been complying with that law, and many decisions were issued at about the 120 day time limit, or were extended for short periods of time. Recent annual average processing times for claims are listed below:

2004	122 days
2003	111 days
2002	130 days
2001	123 days

While this met the letter of the law, the processing time did not always meet the needs of the victims. If someone, as a result of crime, needs medical or counseling services, a four-month delay can be four months of pain. If, as a result of the crime, a victim's income is gone, a four-month delay can mean utilities being disconnected, evictions occurring, and mortgages going into arrears. It also means no money for food and clothing. As such, the Crime Victim Compensation Program began an aggressive campaign to not only shorten the processing time for reviewing compensation applications, but to cut the time in one-half. This initiative was called "60 in '06."

It involved a "soup-to-nuts" examination of each step the office takes in processing and reviewing a claim. We found many ways in which time could be cut without hampering quality. The result of those small cuts was dramatic.

The campaign began in December 2005 and the results have been spectacular. The processing time for the fiscal year dropped to 108 days. However, this included months before the initiative began. The results of the first few months under the 60 in '06 initiative are illustrated below, and the project continued into the next fiscal year, when it ultimately reached its goal, which will be more accurately reflected in the annual processing time found in next year's annual report.

SPEAKER'S BUREAU

The Crime Victims Services Section Speakers' Bureau is composed of employees who travel the state to speak to groups regarding the services provided by the section. These presentations create a greater awareness of these services and will allow our office to serve a greater number of victims each year. Topics can include: Crime Victim Compensation, Victim Information and Notification Everyday (VINE), identity theft and the Identity Theft Passport Program, the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination (SAFE) Program, the Missing Children Clearinghouse, Civil Protection Orders and the Ohio Protection Order Registry.

PERFECTED CLAIMS

A new initiative was launched to develop a "perfected claim" procedure so that victims can receive a decision and an award in a much faster manner with the assistance of local victim advocates.

Historically, processing a compensation application can take up to 120 days or more. The majority of that time is spent waiting on information requested by our office that is needed to review the claim (e.g. medical bills, police reports, earnings information, etc.). It is not uncommon for a claim to sit idle for several weeks while we await the needed information.

In an effort to better serve the victim community, the Attorney General's Office has implemented the "Perfected Claims" concept. This initiative is designed to allow victims of crime to receive assistance much faster from the compensation program. An easy-to-follow checklist of the documents and other information needed to file a Perfected Claim was developed to aid in the preparation of a complete claim.

This initiative will work best when victims are assisted by victim advocates who are encouraged to participate by helping victims file Perfected Claims. Although not every claim can be perfected, the more information provided at the time the claim is filed helps victims receive funds faster.

CONCLUSION

Victims of crime have the right to feel safe, to express their feelings and emotions in healthy ways, and the right to be informed about their role in the criminal justice process. Attorney General Jim Petro's Crime Victims Services Section helps those whose lives have been touched by crime to begin the healing process.

Government agencies provide many essential services to their constituents, but perhaps there are none more important than those performed by the Ohio Attorney General's Crime Victims Services Section: standing beside victims, giving assistance and guidance, providing answers and support. This report of the activities of the Crime Victims Services Section demonstrates the commitment of Attorney General Jim Petro and the men and women of his office to Ohio's crime victims, letting them know that they are not alone and that they need not be victims forever. It is a duty we resolutely and proudly set about doing every day.

"YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEART"

A woman who was raped by a co-worker has struggled with psychological trauma for the last 5 years. She writes:

To all the wonderful people who have helped me try to keep going . . . You are all special! . . . I can't thank you enough. The Victims of Crime Compensation Program is truly a blessing to victims like me. I know someday I will make it on my own, and won't need you (which is a good thing!) but you will always be in my heart. God Bless you all. Thank you Justin for all the hard work you have done on my behalf. You have always been kind when I kept calling and I know you are very busy. Thanks for all the help and I really am glad you are a part of my victims compensation claim!

"I COULD TELL THAT YOU HONESTLY DID CARE"

A 13 year old was sexually assaulted by her mother's boyfriend. The mother reported the matter to the police and stood by her daughter. She writes:

I realize that you have never met my family, and you deal with families like mine on a daily basis. God bless you! My family and myself would like to thank you for helping us. This is the 21st Century, but a lot of people still believe that child molesters are taboo, that if you just don't do or say anything it will go away. But you realize that isn't true. I believe that I talked with you on the phone and I could tell by the compassion in your voice that you honestly did care.

These past months have been as close to hell that I ever want to get. We have lost everything and on top of that these bill collectors call daily, threatening lawsuits. They don't care what my family is going through. It is a great ease of mind to know that you are on your side. Thank you.

"FOR ONCE, SOMEONE HAS WORKED WITH US"

A young father became a double amputee when a teenager chose to drive home even though she realized she was too tired to drive, and then fell asleep at the wheel. After the Crime Victim Compensation Program paid over $40,000 for work loss, home renovations, a motorized wheelchair, prescriptions, and other personal care items, he wrote:

I would like you to send this email to your boss. Me and my wife have been presented with several hurdles in this last year. For once, someone has worked with us and been extremely professional and pleasant to deal with during this difficult time. I would like you to know that Julie should be an example for everyone in your organization to follow. Julie, thank you for making a complicated process not seem bad at all. Thanks.

"HOW PROUD I WAS TO GIVE HIM THE NEWS"

After a homicide, the widower faced loss of his home, without his wife's income to keep up the payments. The local advocate sent in a "Perfected Claim" and a $50,000 award was issued 57 days after we received the application.

I want to take a moment and applaud your victim compensation team for a job well-done. On February 16, 2006, the applicant's wife was killed here in Marion County. The victim compensation application was submitted as an expedited claim. So you know, the reason for the expedited claim was so that the applicant would be able to refinance the home he shared with his wife so he could afford to keep it.

I received a copy of the Finding of Fact and Decision on June 14, 2006, awarding $50,000 for the loss of support of his lovely wife. Fifty-Seven Days! I have to say it again, 57 days! Please, please, please extend a "Great Job" to all of your team who was involved in processing this claim. How proud I was to call and give him the news that the Ohio Victims of Crime Compensation Program had approved the loss of support award.

"WITHOUT YOU I WOULD STILL BE FIGHTING"

Interns in the Missing Children Clearinghouse contacted local law enforcement to officers assistance regarding a missing infant. Based upon that contact, a Missing Child Medial Alert and Trucker Alert were issued, and the child was recovered several hours later. The mother writes:

I will never be able to express how grateful I am to you for helping me to have my son returned. Without you I would still be fighting to get him back. He's the light of my life and God sent me the two of you as a blessing. A million times thank you! I owe you all my happiness! Thank you so much!
