Attorney General
State of Ohio

Dear Fellow Ohioan:

It is my pleasure to present to you the Ohio Victims of Crime Compensation Program Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2008. This report summarizes the activities of a critical service that the Attorney General's office provides to the people of Ohio.

The Crime Victims Compensation Section provides monetary compensation to innocent victims of violent crime and their families. However, the assistance that the Crime Victims Compensation staff provides on a daily basis is measured in much more significant terms than mere dollars and cents. Should a victim or their family member contact the office, and they fall outside of the purview of the Ohio Victims of Crime Program, that person is treated with the highest level of compassion and is readily directed to the proper person or entity that can provide assistance. It is the willingness of the Crime Victims Compensation staff to go above and beyond their job duties which has made me most proud of this section during my tenure as Attorney General.

The enclosed report provides but a snapshot of the overall effort.

I thank you for taking the time to read this report. I invite you to contact my Crime Victims staff at 1-800-582-2877 if you should have any questions or concerns.

Best wishes,

Introduction

Innocent victims of violent crime may be eligible for financial relief from certain expenses arising from the crime. After insurance, restitution or other specific benefits have been utilized, Ohio's Crime Victims Compensation Act (sections 2743.51 to 2743.72 of the Revised Code) enables qualifying individuals to have some expenses from the crime, including medical and counseling expenses, work loss, funeral expenses, and dependent's economic loss, be paid up to $50,000 through the Crime Victims Compensation Fund.

Since the Fund was created in 1976, over $285 million has been paid from it to assist victims and their families recover from the devastating effects of crime resulting in personal injury or death. In 2000, the legislature shifted responsibility for administering the Crime Victims Compensation Program from the Court of Claims of Ohio to the Ohio Attorney General to streamline the review process and expedite payment of awards. The benefits of this change are reflected in the statistics provided within this report, which covers the period from July 1, 2007, to June 30, 2008.

Overview of the Program

Upon the Attorney General's receipt of a compensation application, investigators, working closely with assistant attorneys general, gather and review information regarding the claimed economic loss, underlying crime, applicant's criminal history and other pertinent factors that can impact an award. During a claim's review, assistant attorneys general ensure that statutory requirements for an award are met. Also during this review period, the Attorney General may make an emergency award up to $2,000 if a final award appears likely to be made and a claimant will suffer undue hardship without immediate economic relief.

The Attorney General issues a finding of fact and decision regarding an award within 120 days of receiving an application, although that time may be extended if needed. A claimant may request a reconsideration of this decision within 30 days, or longer if the Attorney General allows in the interest of justice. If a claimant requests a reconsideration, an assistant attorney general issues a final decision within 60 days or longer if necessary. A claimant dissatisfied with the Attorney General's final decision may appeal the decision to a panel of commissioners of the Court of Claims of Ohio within 30 days of the decision, or longer if the panel of commissioners allows in the interests of justice. A claimant may appeal the decision of the panel of commissioners to a judge of the Court of Claims within 30 days of the decision, or longer if the judge permits in the interests of justice, but the judge's decision is final. Assistant attorneys general represent the Fund at the hearings in the Court of Claims. Claimants may participate in the hearings with or without legal counsel, and if a claimant chooses to have an attorney, the attorney's fees are paid from the Fund.

In fact, a claimant has the discretion to be represented by an attorney, at no cost to the claimant, from the time the application is filed. However, the compensation review process is designed to be manageable for a claimant without legal counsel, and most claimants proceed without attorneys.

If an eligible claimant has later unreimbursed expenses from the crime, the claimant may file a supplemental compensation application with the Attorney General within five years of the last decision of the Attorney General, panel of commissioners or judge in the claim for compensation.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who May be Eligible?

- Anyone who is injured during a violent crime or while trying to prevent the crime or apprehend an offender.
- Dependents of deceased victims of crime.
- Anyone who takes financial responsibility for the expenses of a victim of crime.
- Any person who is legally authorized to act on behalf of the victim.

Who is not Eligible?

- The offender.
- A victim or claimant who engaged in a felony of violence or drug trafficking within 10 years prior to the crime that caused the injury or during the pendency of the claim.
- A victim or claimant who has been convicted of a felony within 10 years prior to the crime that caused the injury or during the pendency of the claim.
- A claimant who has been convicted of child endangering or domestic violence within 10 years prior to the crime that caused the injury or during the pendency of the claim.
- An adult victim injured while incarcerated and serving a sentence.

To be Eligible...

If you answer “yes” to all these requirements, you may be eligible for financial help from this program.

- The application must be filed within two years of the date of the crime. A minor has until his/her 20th birthday or within two years from the date a complaint, indictment, or information is filed against the offender, whichever is later.
- The crime must be reported to law enforcement within 72 hours (unless there is a good cause for the delay) and the victim and claimant cooperated with them.
- The victim was not committing an unlawful or intentionally tortious act that caused or contributed to the injuries.
- The victim has no other source of payment for the compensation sought.

What Expenses May be Covered?

- Medical and related expenses.
- Counseling for immediate family members of victims of homicide, sexual assault, or domestic violence (up to $2,500 per family member and $7,500 in the aggregate for all family members).
- Wages lost from being unable to work due to the crime.
- Replacement services.
- Crime scene cleanup/repair for safety (up to $750).
- Evidence replacement (up to $750).
- Funeral expenses (up to $7,500).
- Lost wages and travel expenses for family members of a deceased victim to attend criminal justice proceedings (up to $500 per family member and $2,000 in the aggregate for all family members).

Are There Limits on Compensation?

- Yes. Compensation cannot be made for pain and suffering, or for stolen, damaged, or lost property.
- An award is not made for costs payable by other sources.
- The total award must be $50 or more before payment is made.

Is There a Maximum Amount?

Yes. The maximum amount of compensation available from the program is $50,000 per victimization. This total amount includes the original award, plus any additional awards for expenses incurred after the original application is filed. A victim/claimant may claim these additional expenses by filing a supplemental application. A claimant has 5 years from the date of the last decision in the claim to file a supplemental application. There is no limit to the number of supplemental applications that can be filed, but $50,000 is the total amount of money available for all applications filed as a result of the same criminal act and relating to the same victim.

Application and Award Summary

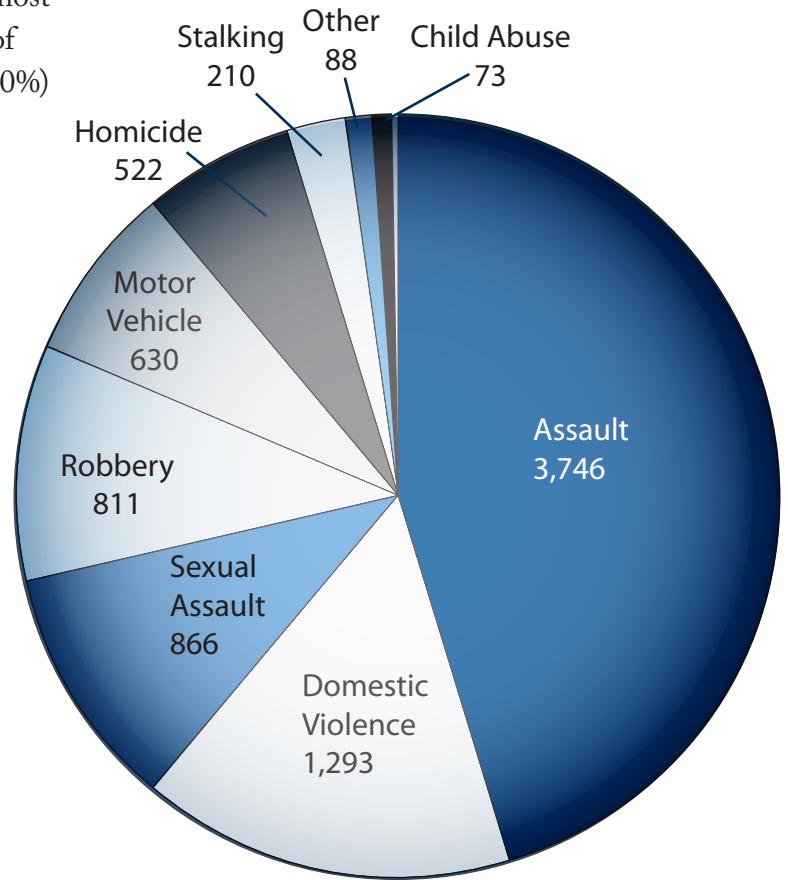

The table below details a wide variety of information including the number of original and supplemental new claims received, claims decided and claims paid. The chart indicates that 56% of claims filed are paid at an average of $2,845 per claim paid. This average award paid has decreased over the last few years and can be attributed to increased quality control efforts on the part of Crime Victims staff. (Note: the slight decrease in total number of claims filed would not affect the average amount paid per claim.)

After experiencing a spike of 8,309 applications received for FY 2007, the number of applications received decreased to 7,969 for FY 2008. As is indicated in the chart on page 10, the FY 2008 figure is down from FY 2007, but is representative of an overall steady increase in applications received beginning in FY 2001.

Awards by Type of Benefit Paid

This table displays a breakdown of the $12,667,975 in Compensation paid for FY 2008, and toward what purposes the compensation was paid. As the table shows, over 53% of the total paid falls under the category of Work Loss, Dependents Economic Loss and Hospital Expenses. Also of note is that 10% of total compensation paid in FY 2008 was for Protection Order fees, as compared to FY 2004 when Protection Order fees accounted for less than 1% (.73%) of total compensation paid for that year.

Attorneys Fees

Attorney's fees may be provided by two separate means under the Crime Victims Compensation Statute. First, the Attorney General shall pay attorney's fees, commensurate with services rendered, for assisting an applicant in processing a crime victim's claim at a rate of $60 per hour.¹ This payment does not reduce any award granted to the victim. The attorney fees paid out for Fiscal Year 2008 saw a decrease of 3% from $255,111 in FY 2007 to $245,184 in FY 2008.

Second, attorneys who assist the claimant with successfully obtaining a restraining order, custody order or other order to physically separate the victim from the offender ("protection order"), may receive reasonable attorney fees not exceeding $2,500, at a rate not exceeding $150 per hour.² An attorney may only receive payment under this section if he or she has not received payment for assisting an applicant with a crime victim's claim. Further, this payment does reduce an award granted to the victim.

As the figures and graph show, the amount the Fund has paid attorneys who have assisted with protection orders has increased by over 17 times since FY 2004 and this amount more than doubled from FY 2006 to FY 2007. From FY 2007 - FY 2008 the amount increased another 30% from $1,015,922 to $1,320,925.

Successfully Obtained Protection Order Claims, Paid by Incident

The chart below details the total number of Protection Order claims paid (1,062) by incident. Note, the 1,062 Protection Order claims paid represents 23% of the total (4,474) claims paid by the program in FY 2008. As the chart indicates, 86% of the total Protection Order claims paid fall under the categories of Domestic Violence (66%) or Stalking, Menacing and Harassment (20%).

Number of Awards For Protection Orders By Incident Type

Administrative Costs

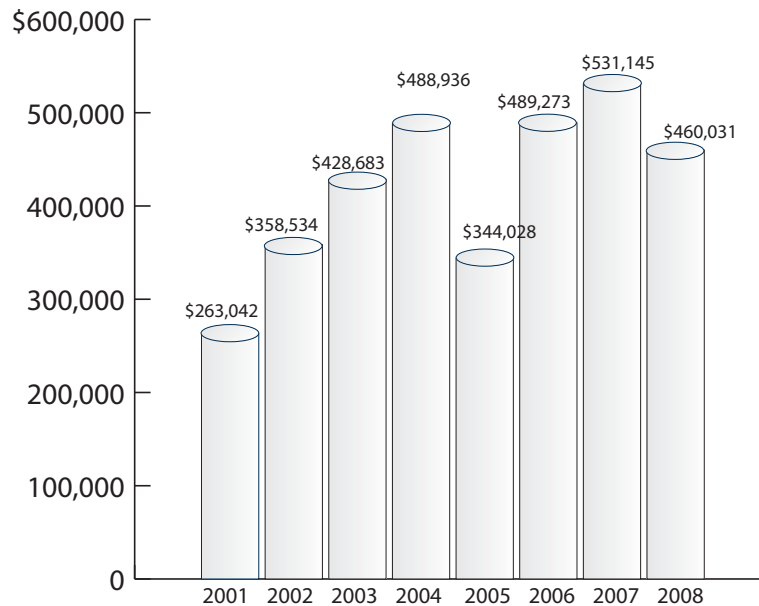

Administrative costs for Fiscal Year 2008 saw a slight, $36,561.37 decrease, down from a 7% increase for FY 2006 – FY 2007. This slight decrease in overall administrative costs can be attributed to overall cost decreases from the Court and Compensation Units.

Subrogation

The Attorney General honors her statutory duty to subrogate and hold offenders financially accountable for their crimes. The subrogation unit's collection efforts against offenders, insurance companies, and other liable parties allow for the crime victims fund to be reimbursed. The chart below depicts the results of the subrogation unit's efforts.

Subrogation Collections

The table below shows the total amount of money returned to the program through subrogation for FY 2008. As is detailed in the table, the primary source of subrogated funds ($170,679) is that which is obtained by directly billing the offender.
