

RICHARD CORDRAY
OHIO ATTORNEY GENERAL

Crime Victims Compensation Program
Fiscal 2010
Annual Report

Released January 7, 2011

RICHARD CORDRAY
OHIO ATTORNEY GENERAL

January 7, 2011

Dear Colleagues,

Since taking office, one of my priorities has been to protect and preserve the Crime Victims Reparations Fund, which compensates innocent victims of violent crime for economic losses suffered as a result of the crimes committed against them. The amount of money available in the fund had declined by tens of millions of dollars in recent years and was on a projected path to insolvency by 2011. Today, I am proud to say that our focused efforts over the past two years have stabilized the fund, and it increased in value in 2010 for the first time in five years. Much remains to be done, however, to ensure that it will survive to assist future Ohio crime victims.

The essential problem is that expenses and spending had been increasing while revenues had not. During my tenure as Attorney General, we exerted closer control over spending, which we have managed to cut by more than 15%. The fund's revenues are derived primarily from court costs, but also from federal grants and drivers' license reinstatement fees, all of which are less predictable and not subject to control by my office. (No tax money goes into the fund.) As expenses charged to the fund rose dramatically in the past decade, the court costs assessed per infraction in individual cases have not been updated by the Legislature, and the total amount of court costs paid by those committing crimes, though fluctuating from year to year, has declined substantially in recent years. After working with the fund for the past two years, I believe the Legislature should consider approving an increase in court costs to ensure the fund's viability.

This report covers fiscal 2010 (from July 1, 2009 to June 30, 2010) and fulfills the legal requirement for an annual report to be submitted to the Governor and General Assembly. It describes the current state of the fund and how it helps victims and survivors.

Since its inception, the Crime Victims Reparations Fund has paid more than $307 million in compensation to victims of violent crime across Ohio. During fiscal 2010, the fund received 7,438 applications for compensation and paid out more than $10.6 million to assist 4,334 victims or their families with medical treatment, lost wages and other costs.

Each year, Ohio's Crime Victims Reparations Fund helps thousands of innocent victims across the state, and we must take action to preserve it. Because the fund is supported mainly by court costs paid by criminal perpetrators, rather than taxpayer dollars, arriving at a solution need not be contentious. For years, the fund has borne the burden of unfunded legislative initiatives. Now is the time to ensure it will remain available to help victims for years to come.

Sincerely,

Richard Cordray
Ohio Attorney General

APPLICATIONS AND AWARDS

The Crime Victims Compensation Program received 7,438 original and supplemental applications in fiscal 2010 (Fig. 1). Of those, 4,334 or 58 percent were approved. The average award totaled $2,465. The number of applications was down about 7 percent in fiscal 2010, and the percentage resulting in an award was up about 4.5 percent.

Victims of assault received a higher number of awards than victims of any other crime (Fig. 2). Domestic violence, sexual assault and robbery victims followed in terms of frequency of awards.

SEXUAL ASSAULT FORENSIC EXAMINATION PROGRAM (SAFE)

The Ohio Crime Victims Reparations Fund reimburses hospitals' costs for forensic exams performed after a suspected sexual assault. The Sexual Assault Forensic Examination program (SAFE) ensures that victims of sexual assault are not held responsible for medical costs that accompany this traumatic event and that evidence needed to prosecute offenders is collected properly. In 2010, the reparations fund paid out $3,427,676 to cover the cost of 6,443 examinations.

SUBROGATION

The Attorney General's Office has a statutory duty to hold offenders financially accountable for their crimes. Subrogation is the act of substituting one creditor for another. In the case of crime victim compensation, it is the attempt to collect any money due a victim by an offender or other source. The Subrogation Unit's collection efforts against offenders, insurance companies and other liable parties allow the Crime Victims Reparations Fund to be reimbursed funds already expended on behalf of the victim. The accompanying graph shows the results of the Subrogation Unit's efforts in recent years (Fig. 4).

Subrogation collections totaled $517,266 in fiscal 2010. The largest portion ($273,617) was obtained through settlements.

FIG. 4. SUBROGATION BY YEAR

ATTORNEY FEES

Attorney fees may be compensated by two separate means under the Crime Victims Compensation Statute.

First, applicants who wish to seek the assistance of an attorney in filing for compensation or in appealing a decision of the Attorney General's Office may do so. However, attorneys who work with applicants are not permitted to bill them for services. Rather, attorneys must submit their bills to the Attorney General's Office for payment at a rate of $60 per hour. This payment does not reduce any award granted to the victim. The attorney fees paid out for assistance with compensation applications in fiscal 2010 totaled $302,320 (Fig. 5).

FIG. 5. ATTORNEY FEES FOR ASSISTANCE WITH COMPENSATION APPLICATIONS

Second, an attorney who assists a claimant with successfully obtaining a restraining order, custody order or other protection order to physically separate the victim from the offender may receive up to $60 per hour and $30 per hour for travel. (Prior to October 2009, the legally allowable amount was $150 per hour for services and travel.) The total paid to attorneys who helped victims gain protection orders was $1,364,468 (Fig. 6).

As the figures and graph show, the amount the Ohio Crime Victims Reparations Fund has paid attorneys who have assisted with such orders increased greatly in recent years. In fiscal 2010, the amount has declined due to changes in the law regarding attorney compensation.
