DISAPPROVAL—CERTAIN GRANT OF EASEMENT.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, November 18, 1936.

HON. L. WOODDELL, Conservation Commissioner, Columbus, Ohio.
Ohio.

DEAR SIR: You have submitted for my examination and approval a certain grant of easement, No. 56, conveying to the state of Ohio for the purposes cited therein, a certain tract of land.

Upon examination of the above instrument, it appears that the property in question is owned by the village of Sycamore, Wyandot County, Ohio, and that the signature of O. J. Neibel appears as Mayor for said village. However, there is nothing contained in said instrument that there was authority for the execution of the same by the mayor.

I am therefore returning the same to you without my approval endorsed thereon.

Respectfully,

JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.

DISAPPROVAL—CERTAIN GRANT OF EASEMENT.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, November 18, 1936.

HON. L. WOODDELL, Conservation Commissioner, Columbus, Ohio.
Ohio.

DEAR SIR: You have submitted for my examination and approval a certain grant of easement, No. 128, conveying to the state of Ohio for the purposes cited therein, a certain tract of land.

Upon examination of the above instrument, it appears that the property in question is owned by Madison Township, Franklin County, Ohio, and that the signature of I. E. Wildermuth appears as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of said township. However, there is nothing contained in said instrument that there was authority for the execution of the same by the chairman of the board of trustees of said township.

I am therefore returning the same to you without my approval endorsed thereon.

Respectfully,

JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.

DISAPPROVAL—CERTAIN GRANTS OF EASEMENT.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, November 18, 1936.

HON. L. WOODDELL, Conservation Commissioner, Columbus, Ohio.

DEAR SIR: You have submitted for my examination and approval certain grants of easement, Numbers 63 and 64, conveying to the state of Ohio for the purposes cited therein, certain tracts of land.

Upon examination, I find the same is executed by one Lovell H. Hull as guardian of Richard Carter. Unless a court order authorizing the guardian to convey the easement in question is incorporated therein, the execution thereof is without authority.

I am therefore returning the same to you without my approval thereon.

Respectfully,

JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.

DISAPPROVAL—GRANT OF EASEMENT.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, November 18, 1936.

HON. L. WOODDELL, Conservation Commissioner, Columbus, Ohio.

DEAR SIR: You have submitted for my examination and approval a certain grant of easement, No. 103, conveying to the state of Ohio for the purposes cited therein, certain lands.

Upon examination, I find that the above instrument is executed by Fred W. Rabe as Agent. The law of Ohio provides that an instrument of conveyance of real estate or an interest therein, may only be executed by an agent upon written power of attorney from the owner of the land.
