APPROVAL OF SYNOPSIS OF BILL FOR WORLD WIDE DISARMAMENT, ETC.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, October 9, 1925.

HON. HERBERT S. BIGELOW, Peace Referendum Committee for Ohio, Cincinnati, Ohio.

DEAR SIR:—You have submitted a form of petition which sets forth a copy of a law which it is understood is to be proposed by initiative petition to the General Assembly, and have requested me to approve a synopsis thereof, which you submit, as follows:

"SYNOPSIS

A bill declaring that it is the policy of the state to favor the concerted action of the nations for world-wide disarmament, and enabling the people, by advisory referendum voting, at any regular election, to declare their sentiment with reference to any proposal for the prevention or discouragement of war."

Section 5175-29e provides, among other things, that:

"Whoever proposes to file an initiative or referendum petition may submit to the attorney general a fair and impartial synopsis of such proposed law or amendment and if such synopsis is a truthful statement of the contents and purpose of such proposed law or amendment he shall so certify."

After an examination of the law as set forth upon the form of petition which you submit, I hereby certify that the foregoing synopsis is a truthful statement of the contents and purposes of the bill therein referred to.

Respectfully,

C. C. CRABBE,

Attorney General.
